Membrane 2.

Oct. 25. Grant, at the instance of Hugh le Bygod and John de Bayloll, to Henna wife of Aaron son of Jocelin Jew of York, sister of Samuel son of Leo, sometime Jew of York, deceased, of that which pertains to the king touching the houses, rents and other appurtenances late of the said Samuel.

Grant to Edmund the king's son and his heirs of the county and honour to Leicester, the stewardship of England, and all the lands late of S. de Monte Forti, sometime earl of Leicester, the king's enemy, except the king's demesnes (dominiciis), to hold at the due and accustomed service; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him as their lord.

The like grant to the said Edmund of all the lands late of Nicholas de Segrave.

Whereas the king has learned for certain that the chest of chirographs of his Jewry of Canterbury was carried away by his enemies during the late disturbance to Dover without his licence, and certain charters containing the debts of Salle de Cantuaria, Jew, drawn out of it and pardons of the said debts made; the king, reflecting that grave loss may happen to him and the said Jew by this, decrees that these pardons be void, and that Salle may recover his said debts whether the said charters have been drawn out of the said chest or not, provided that he can give reasonable proof of such debts by the parts of his charters or otherwise.

Revocation of the presentation, made after the conflict at Lewes when the king was in the keeping of Simon de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, of Master Thomas de Lichfeld, to the church of La Rye;
