Membrane 46—cont.

The like until Whitsunday, at the instance of Ralph son of Randolf, for John, parson of the church of Torneton in Lonesdale.

The like, until Easter, at the instance of John le Fauconer, for Philip Godchep.

Oct. 30. Pardon, at the instance of Guichard de Charrun, to Ellis son of Ralph de Herneby for the death of Alexander Tod of Spennethorn.

Oct. 30. Confirmation of a lease for nine years from Ascension, 45 Henry III, by John son of Jolland de Nevill to John son of Henry de Wautham deceased (defuncto) of the manor of Shorne in favour of Roger de Nortwode and Bonafilia his wife, sister and heir of the said John son of Henry.

Appointment, of Master William de Clifford, king's clerk, the king's escheator, to take into the king's hands all the king's demesne lands on this side Trent which were in the hands of Simon de Monte Forti sometime earl of Leicester, Henry de Hastenges, and other the king's enemies and rebels except the manor of Aylebiry, and to keep them during pleasure, answering for the issues at the Exchequer.

Although Ludekin de CoefFeld, merchant of Almain, by compulsion, adhered to Simon de Monte Forti and the citizens of London, the king's enemies, in the conflict at Lewes against the king and Edward his son, yet, at the instance of Arnulf, chancellor of the king's brother the king of Almain, the king has admitted him to his peace and remitted all his rancour and indignation against him on that account, not wishing that he be molested in his person, goods, or merchandise by reason of that.

Simple protection for one year, at the instance of Edward the king's son, for William de Leycester, clerk.

Grant to William le Taylur and his heirs, for his services to Eleanor the consort of Edward the king's son, of the houses in the parish of St. Dunstan, London, late of William Bruning, sometime citizen of London, the king's enemy.

Membrane 46 (Schedule).

Nov. 1. Grant for life to Peter Bonyn of Bruges, for his services to the king and queen Eleanor, of 20l. a year in the name of a fee, from the toll of the town of Newcastle on Tyne; and also quittance to him from payment of murage and toll throughout the land.

Membrane 46.—cont.

Simple protection for one year, at the instance of Edward the king's son, for John de Snaves.

The like until Midsummer for the brethren of Grammont in England.

The like for one year for Richard, parson of the church of Kemesing.

Request to the tenants of the priory of Christchurch, Canterbury to contribute an aid for the relief of the debts wherein the prior and...