Membrana 45—cont.

the voidance of the archbishopric of York, with mandate to the dean and chapter of York to assign him in the church of Beverley a stall in the choir and a place in the chapter.

He has a like letter directed Omnis.

Pardon to Robert son of Godda de Domeschirch for the death of Walter Levered, as it appears by inquisition made by Geoffrey de Leukonore that he killed him in self defence.

Admission, for a fine, of the burgesses of Beverley except Richard le Caretter to the king's grace and peace, and remission to them of the king's rancour and indignation because of certain trespasses against him done by them during the present voidance of the archbishopric of York; and grant that they have the same state as regards liberties and customs until the creation of a new archbishop as they had in the time of Godfrey, the late archbishop.

And for this letter they give the king 80l.

Master Henry Makasyn, canon of Emly (Imbac'), bringing news of the death of Gilbert, bishop of that place, with letters patent of the chapter, the dean and chapter have licence to elect.

Protection until Easter for Thomas de Cumbe and Amice his wife, citizens of London.

The like until Whitsunday, at the instance of Robert Fulconis, for Alice late the wife of Guy de la Pirye.

The like for five years for the hospital of lepers of St. Margaret's without Neuportpaynel.

Nov. 8. Simple protection until Whitsunday for the prior and convent of Holy Trinity, York.

Safe conduct until Midsummer for William le Mazicer of London, on trustworthy testimony that he was not against the king or his son.

Protection for one year for Joan de Cantilupo.

Grant, at the instance of Hugh le Bygod, to Lambert de Viridi Campo that he shall be quit of all prise on all his merchandise which he causes to be brought into the realm in the present year.

Grant to Ralph de Bakepuz and his heirs of the houses in the parish of St. Peter le Petit, London, late of Thomas de la Forde, sometime citizen of London, the king's enemy.

Whereas the king heretofore granted to Ingram de Percy, Imbert de Mountferrunt and Peter de Chaumpvent the wardship of the lands and heirs of William de Fortibus, tenant in chief, and Ingram, before his death, assigned to the executors of his will the portion falling by