1265. Membrane 45—cont.

inheritance to Joan his first born daughter, one of the heirs of the said William, and the said executors gave that portion to William de Percy, brother of the said Ingram; the king confirms this.

Confirmation of the collation, made by the king when he was in the keeping and power of S. de Monte Forti, earl of Leicester, of the provostship of the church of Beverley to Master John de Chishull, king's clerk, the see of York being void, notwithstanding the revocation of the king's grants made at that time.

Grant to Richard de Hereford, king's clerk, that the 500 marks borrowed from him when the king was last at Hereford, shall be paid to him at the Exchequer, to wit, 250 marks during the present year and 250 next year.

Although Thomas de Chaunceus adhered at one time to Simon de Monte Forti and his partisans, the king's enemies, nevertheless at the command of John Giffard, who constantly adhered to Edward the king's son he was prepared to aggrieve the rebels and started against them with others, as appears by testimony of Gilbert de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hereford, and the said John; the king, at the instance of the said Gilbert and John has admitted him to his grace, and remitted his indignation and rancour against him; and he wills that he be not molested therefor in his person, lands or possessions.

William de Aton, Robert de Pavily, Miles de Hastings and Geoffrey de Mortuo Mari, have like letters.

Nov. 10. Simple protection until Midsummer for Henry de Heleweton.

Grant to William de Percy of the prebend which James son of Nicholas, deceased, had in the church of York, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of York.

Simple protection until Midsummer at the instance of Edward de Criolle, for Nicholas de Reygate.

The like until Whitsunday for the prior and convent of Daventre.

Protection for one year for Master Beaumund, parson of the church of Biry, John de Mutina and Nicholas le Normaund.

The like until Whitsunday for Walter son of Alexander de Boketon, John his son, and William de la Chaumbre.

Safe conduct and simple protection until Midsummer for Henry le Botuner of London, and his merchandise throughout the realm.

Simple protection until Easter for John de Hesel, at the instance of Master John de Chishull.

Protection until Midsummer for Walter de Brissell and Guy his son.

Simple protection for one year for the prior and convent of Hatfeld Regis.