Membrane 41—cont.

Writ de intendendo for Matthias de Bezilles, appointed by Edward the king's son during his pleasure to be constable of the castle of Dover, and keeper of the ports of Dover and Sandwich, which castle the king lately committed to his said son.

Grant to Mosse de Clare, Jew, in consideration of his damages and grievances during the late disturbance in the realm, that the king will not make any extent, prorogation, quittance or gift of any debts owing to him by Simon de Insula, Robert Houel, James Maskerel, Edmund de Illeg, William de Nuddilton, Hugh Pech, William de Montecaniso of Edwardeston and others, for five years.

Safe conduct for Theofania de Sancto Edmundo coming to the king.

Commitment during pleasure to John de Haulton of the county of Northumberland and the castle of Newcastle, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer; and mandate to all of the county to be intendant to him as sheriff and keeper of the castle.

Mandate to Robert de Insula to deliver the castle to him.

Nov. 28. Although all the lands of those who were the king's adversaries in the disturbance of the realm were surrendered into the king's hands on Thursday after the Exaltation of the Holy Cross last past, and Edward the king's son had granted to Thomas de Clare the soke of Oswaldebek in le Clay before that date by letters patent which the king has inspected; the king wills nevertheless that all the rents arising in the said soke of the term of the Nativity of the Blessed Mary before the said Thursday be paid to the said Thomas without difficulty, and commands the tenants of the said soke to pay them to him accordingly.

Simple protection for one year for Henry de Valle Sancte Marie. The like until Midsummer for Edmund de Essex, citizen of London.

Power to James de Aldithele to make truces with Llewelin son of Griffin and his accomplices until Lent. [Faxlera.]

Pardon to Matth[ew] de Hastings, on testimony by Edward the king's son that in the time of the disturbance in the realm being in the munition of the castle of Dover against the king, at the mandate of the said Edward went out therefrom with his household, and afterwards remained constant to the king and his son, of his trespass in being in the said castle against the king, and admission of him to the king's peace; and restitution to him of his lands, which have been seized on that account.

Commitment during pleasure to John Walerand and John de la Linde of the city of London, the Tower of London, and the county of Middlesex, so that they answer for the issues of the Exchequer. Mandate to Hugh son of Otto to deliver these to them.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for Geoffrey de Percy.