Commitment during pleasure to Richard de Bamfeud of the changes of London and Canterbury, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer; with mandate to the ministers thereof to be intendant to him.

Mandate to William son of Richard to deliver them to him.

Confirmation of a lease for five years from the feast of St. Andrew the Apostle, 50 Henry III, by Geoffrey de Lucy to Geoffrey de Leziniaco the king's brother, of his manor of Newenton.

Ratification of an appointment by Edward the king's son of Robert de Acton, his clerk, to receive the issues and profits of Herteburn and dispose of them as should seem to him expedient.

Grant to Oliver de Dyneham [Oliver Dynaunt. in the margin] of the farm which Master Richard Toriz, archdeacon of Exeter, the king's enemy, had from the manors of Harpeford and Nutewell, which belonged to the monks of Dyneham.

Protection until Easter for Gilbert de Tychewell, on testimony before the king by William de Sancto Omero and others that he adhered to the king's fealty.

Simple protection until Whitsunday for the following:
   Alan de Sutton, clerk.
   John de Dyve.
   Richard de Swinton.

Acceptance of a grant by Edward the king's son to Edmund the king's son and his heirs of the castles of Kermerdin and Kardigan; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him.

Simple protection until Easter for Robert de Tayh.

Grant to Master Henry de Woburn, a deaf man, of 2½d. a day which William de Sancto Germano, sometime serjeant at arms, lately deceased, used to take at the Exchequer.

Grant, at the instance of Edward the king's son, to Robert de Whitefeud, yeoman of Thomas de Clare, and his heirs of the whole land in Westfalele, co. Berks, late of John Maunsel, deceased, which is the king's escheat through the death of the said John.

Because the king has learned by inquisition made by Reynold de Acle, sheriff of Gloucester, that the suit which the brethren of the hospital of St. Katharine; Ledebiry, and two men of theirs of Kempele do at his hundred of Buttelawe is extended at 3s. yearly, and that, saving his indemnity, he can remit it for 3s. yearly to be rendered at the Exchequer, he out of compassion for their poverty, for the saving