of his soul and the souls of his ancestors and heirs, remits to them 12d. of the said 3s. and for the remaining 2s. to be rendered at the Exchequer of Michaelmas yearly he has remitted to them and their successors the said suit for ever.

Nov. 29. Simple protection until Easter for Thomas le Latimer.

Nov. 29. To M. countess of Flanders. Because the citizens of London have submitted their persons and goods in all things to the king's will, and many of their goods (bobus) are and have been arrested by her bailiffs and subjects in her district, the king requests her to cause these to be assigned and delivered without subterfuge to Edward the king's son, to whom the king has granted the said goods; or one commanded by him bringing these letters, and the king will keep her and her subjects harmless. But she will please cause the goods of other merchants of England to be kept under arrest, until the king or his son certify her who of them during the late discord in the realm remained faithful to the king.

Nov. 26. Notification that William de Bluntesdon, bailiff of Falkeham and Westminster. Bracking delivered by order of the king to Thomas de Roksele, clerk of Roger de Leyburn, constable of the castle of Rochester, 40L for the munition of the said castle.

Grant at the instance of brother John Derlington, the king's father, to the Friars Preachers of Ipswich of that messuage late of Hugh son of Gerard de Langeston in Ipswich, which the said Hugh gave to the king by charter; to hold in frank almoin in augmentation of their area.

To M. countess of Flanders and Hainault. Whereas, by occasion of the arrest of the goods and merchandise of merchants of her land made in the king's realm in the time of the late disturbance she caused the goods and chattels of merchants of the realm found in her power to be arrested, amongst which goods of Ellis de Essex, king's merchant of Borham were arrested and are still detained from him; and whereas, at her request the king has ordered the arrested goods of her merchants to be delivered, the king requests her to cause the goods of the said Ellis to be delivered in exchange.

Nov. 28. Pardon, at the instance of Edward the king's son, to William de Mughale of the king's suit for the death of Mimma (Mimme) de Acton, Stephen son of Herbert, and William son of Richard de Acton, whereby he is charged.

The like to the following:—
John de Bobinton, for the death of Maurice Krammok.
Alan Scot.
Robert de Novo Castro, for the death of the said Maurice.
Adenetus le Tailur

Grant to Peter de Chaumpvent, to whom with Ottonin de Graunzun the king granted all the lands late of William le Blund the king's enemy, of the goods of the said William, which belong to the king by reason of his forfeiture.