and pardon to him of all other trespasses committed against the king, as well of castles of the king thrown down by him or any other trespasses committed by him against the king and Edward his son up to Saturday before the feast of St. Nicholas, 50 Henry III; and admission of the earl to the king's full grace, good will and peace; the king promising in good faith to acquit him towards the said Edward touching all contentions between them and all trespasses committed by the earl against the said Edward, and granting also that he will keep the earl harmless as regards disherison for all trespasses committed against the king and his son, or others, up to the said day, provided that he satisfy the king of the said jewel and money.

Dec. 6. Grant to Ingram de Fednes, for his services, that the king will provide for him in 200l. yearly of land out of the first escheats that fall in.

Notification that the king is bound to Ingram de Fenes in 400l. for his expenses in the king's service in the forty-eighth year in parts beyond seas with Queen Eleanor, which the king will cause to be paid to him at the Exchequer of Hilary next.

Simple protection until Whitsunday for Amice, countess of Devon.

Safe conduct until Christmas for Robert de Ferraris, earl of Derby, in coming to the king wherever he may be in England with his own household.

Simple protection until Whitsunday for Richard de Say, clerk.

Grant to William de Detling of the wardship of the lands and heirs of John le Waleys who held of the king in chief, with the marriage of the heirs.

Presentation of Giles de Audenard to the church of Baddeby, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the abbey of Evesham; directed to R. bishop of Lincoln.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for Roger Huchtredi of Scardeburg.

Dec. 5. Grant to Aymo, prior of Wenlok, and the convent of that place that they and their successors and their men be for ever quit of murage, toll, pontage and passage in respect of all their own goods, throughout the realm; and they are not to be disquieted contrary to this on pain of forfeiture of 10l.

Simple protection until Whitsunday for Henry Asser of Horneckastre.

Request to the knights and free men of the abbey of St. Edmunds to give an aid to the abbot and convent for the discharge of the debts