1265.

Membrane 39—cont.

Letters of credence directed to all persons owing service to the king for John de Baillol, whom the king, who is too ill to go himself, is sending to Northampton to meet those summoned thither by the day of St. Lucy the Virgin to go thence to besiege the king's enemies who are in the castle of Kenilworth, to set forth to them the said business and other business. [Fadera.]

Power to John de Ballol and Peter de Wintonia to receive fines where it shall be expedient of those who owe service to the king and whom he has commanded be with all their service at Northampton as above to do as shall be commanded them.

Dec. 12. Pardon, at the instance of John de Balliolo, to William de Croft for the death of Hawise daughter of Roger the Smith.

Grant to Master William de Clifford, king's clerk, lately appointed guardian during pleasure of the void archbishopric of York, that he shall take for his expenses from the issues of the archbishopric as much as the king's guardian has been accustomed to do in the time of any other voidance.

Remission, at the instance of W. bishop of Bath and Wells, Philip Basset and Roger de Leyburn, to Giles de Gousle and Peter his brother, of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived against them by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm; and they are not to be aggrieved henceforth in their persons, lands or possessions on that account.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for the following:—
- Master Walter de Sine Muro.
- Gilbert de Bokhurst.

Safe conduct, for eight days, for William Makerel, in bringing his wine from London to the king at Windsor by command of the king.

Commitment to Master Richard de Clifford, king's clerk, of the office of the king's escheatry beyond the Trent and of all the king's desmesnes beyond Trent to keep during pleasure, so that he answer for the issues arising therefrom at the Exchequer.

The like to Richard son of Alexander de Hope.

Grant to the burgesses of Caleys and their heirs for ever shall have this liberty throughout the king's whole land and power, that they or their goods shall not be arrested for any debt whereof they are not sureties or principal debtors unless the debtors are of their commune and power having wherewith to satisfy their debt in the whole or in part and the said burgesses have failed to do justice to the creditors of these debtors.

Dec. 12. Commitment during pleasure to Roger de Clifford of the king's barton of Gloucester which the abbot, of St. Peter's Gloucester held