Simple protection until Michaelmas for Ivo, parson of the church of Rokingham.

Safe conduct until Easter for Hugh Gobiun, coming to the king's court and staying there; an condition that he stand his trial there for those things which the king or others will bring against him.

The like until the Purification for Gerard de Furnivall.

Safe conduct until Michaelmas for Hamo de Curva Villa, in going beyond seas, staying there and returning.

Whereas for divers causes, as well for the rebuilding of the king's castles thrown down in the time of the disturbance in the realm, as for the discharge of his debts to merchants and others both beyond the seas and within, the king has appointed W. bishop of Bath and Wells, Hugh le Bygod, Roger de Leyburn, and Robert Walerand to dispose of all the escheats, wardships and marriages which fall in from this day of the Circumcision, 50 Henry III, for two years; and to apply the issues and emoluments arising therefrom to the said uses; promising to ratify whatever they do in his name and that this appointment shall in no wise be revoked or annulled.

To the barons and commonalty of the city of London who lately submitted themselves to the king's will. As they have placed themselves under the king's will in respect of all trespasses committed by them against the king in the time of the disturbance in the realm, the king is sending specially to them Roger de Leyburn, his steward, and Robert Walerand, his secretary, to treat with them over all the circumstances touching the business of their reconciliation and to express to them the king's full will thereon; with full power to do everything in the premises which the king could do if he were present in person.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for the following:
- Gocelin de Steneby.
- James le Sauvage.
- Richard de Wigornia.
- Simon de Meriet.

Dec. 31. Whereas the king lately committed during pleasure to Adam de Northamton, king's clerk, the wardships of the lands late of Roger de Cantilupo in Cestreton and of John de Lungeville in Overton Lungeville, which wardships Roger de Lovetoff held in his hand as lord of those fees, and which fell into the king's hand by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm; in consideration of the long service of his said clerk as well beyond the seas as within, the king has granted to him the said wardships to hold to him his heirs or assigns until the full age of the respective heirs, with the marriages of the same heirs.

Simple protection, until Michaelmas, for William Torel.
The like until Midsummer for William de Hausted.

Protection for two years for the prior and convent of Worcester.