Mandate to John de London, king's clerk, constable of the castle of Windesor, as the king has granted that all prisoners of the said city be delivered, except Thomas son of Thomas, Thomas de Pyweledon, Stephen Bukerel, Michael Tony, and John le Chapeler, whom the king has given to Edward his son, to deliver all the citizens of London in his keeping in the castle, except these.

Pardon, at the instance of John Giffard son of Osbert Giffard, to Geoffrey de Arcubus for the death of Hugh Ruffus.

Safe conduct until the octaves of the Purification for John de Melsa coming to the king's court; provided that he stand his trial.

Grant to Guy de Marchia, the king's nephew, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Richard de Dovor', lately deceased, who held of the king in chief, with knights' fees, advowsons of churches, dowers when they fall in and with the marriage of the heirs.

Presentation of Master William de Fiscambo to the prebend of Langetoft, sometime of Leonard Odelini, a Roman, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the archbishopric of York; directed to the dean and chapter of York.

Grant to Warin de Bassingburn of the wardship of the lands and heirs of William Maudut of Weministre, deceased, who held of the king in chief, with knights' fees, advowsons of churches and dowers when they fall in, and with the marriage of the heirs.

Safe conduct until Shrove Tuesday for William Marmiun, coming to the king's court; provided that he stand his trial, etc.

Jan. 12. Grant to Philip de Horton burgess of Northampton, that he shall not be tallaged or make any contributions or tallages assessed in the said town, for ten years.

Jan. 14. Whereas the lands and tenements of the king's enemies and rebels who adhered to Simon de Monteforti, sometime earl of Leicester, and his partisans, in the time of the late war in the realm moved by the said Simon for the disherison of the king and the destruction of his crown, and which are of the fees of the magnates of the realm, by the forfeiture of the said enemies, pertain, by the common consent and counsel of the said magnates and faithful men of the realm to the king's ordinance and disposition for this turn, saving to the chief lords their homages and services due and accustomed; and the king has accordingly conferred certain lands of his enemies which are of the fee of G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, upon certain faithful men of the realm; he grants that no loss shall accrue to the earl or his heirs in wards, reliefs or other things pertaining to them, or any prejudice arise to them by occasion of any such grant made or to be made.

[Jan. 14.] Grant to the said earl of all the goods seized by him from any of the king's enemies in the time of the late disturbance and war; and the king is unwilling that the earl be occasioned thereby before the king, his justices or other ministers.