1266.

Membrane 30—cont.

The like for the following:

The abbot and convent of Heppe, provided that they stand their trial etc.

Feb. 11. Richard de Clopton, provided etc.

Westminster.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for the following:

Mereduc, parson of the church of Obernaund.

Master Hugh, archdeacon of Kardingh'.

Safe conduct until the quinzaine of Easter for Roger de Lovetot, coming to the king's court; provided that he stand his trial etc.

Feb. 10.

Remission to Master Thomas de Cantulupo, archdeacon of Stafford, sometime chancellor, of all the king's rancour and indignation of mind conceived against him by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm; and admission of him to the king's grace.

Feb. 12.

Simple protection for him for one year.

Westminster.

The like until Michaelmas for William de Calvelee.

Feb. 10.

Pardon to Master Henry de la Wade, king's serjeant, of 16 silver dishes (scutellas) which he lost in the king's service from the time when he was keeper of the king's silver vessels; and he is not to be occasioned on account of the loss.

Notification that W. bishop of Salisbury, delivered in the wardrobe on Thursday the feast of St. Scholastica, at Westminster, 50 Henry III, 200l. whereby he made fine with the king for his service in the summons of the army at Northampton and for having the king's good will.

Whereas the citizens of London have lent Edward the king's son 800l., the king promises that he will allow them this sum in the payment of the 10,000 marks first paid of the fine which they have made with him for having his grace and good will.

Mandate to the abbot of Heppe, executor of the will of Robert de Veteri Ponte, and his co-executors to deliver the goods of the said Robert, who was bound to the king, on the day of the disturbance had in the realm, in many debts, which the king has given to Roger de Leyburn in part compensation for losses sustained in the king's service in the time of such disturbance, to the said Roger or his attorney.

Safe conduct until the quinzaine of Easter for Robert Butevileyn in coming to the king's court and staying there; provided that he stands his trial etc.

Feb. 12.

Grant to Henry son of the king of Almain the king's nephew, for his services to the king and Edward his son, of the manor of Norton, co. Northampton, that was of William le Marescal the king's enemy and sometime the king's demesne; to hold to him and his heirs in tenancy until the king provide for him or them in 100 marks yearly of land from another source.