(Membrane 27—cont.

and which belongs to the king by reason of his trespass and forfeiture; to hold to him and his assigns in the same manner as the said Adam held it by the king's special grace.

Remission to the prior and convent of St. Swithun's, Winchester, for a fine of 500 marks, of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived against them by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm; and admission of them into the king's grace and peace, and promise that the king will not occasion them because of this, or let them be occasioned by his justices or bailiffs or ministers.

The like, at the instance of brother John de Derlington, to John de Lullington of the king's indignation and rancour of mind because he adhered to Simon de Monteforti earl of Leicester and his favourers; and the king is unwilling that he be molested in his person or possessions.

Feb. 20. Grant by way of grace and humanity to Elizabeth wife of Walter Westminster, cle Colevill, the king's enemy, who is in prison, that of the lands late of the said Walter in Han bum which the king gave lately to Geoffrey de Lczinan and which have been extended at 46l. 7s. 4d. yearly she shall have 13 virgates of land of villeinage, with the villeins holding the said lands with all their issues, which have been extended at 13l. a year, for the maintenance of herself and her children, for her life, by the title of a free tenant.

Grant for life to Robert, bishop of Dunblane that he be quit of the suit which he owes at the county of Notingeham and at the wapentake of Risclive in that county by reason of the lands which he has in that county.

Remission at the instance of brother William de la Bataill, to Jordan de Muleton of the king's indignation and rancour of mind against him by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm; and the king is unwilling that he be molested in his person, lands or possessions; provided that he behave faithfully henceforward.

Safe conduct until the quinzaine of April for John de Bathonia coming to the king to treat of peace, provided that he do no damage to the king or his faithful in the meantime.

Whereas the king lately gave to William de Mortayn the lands late of Robert de Stradleg, the king's enemy, who is in prison, and as because of the insufficient extent made of the said lands the king cannot as yet assign to Hawise wife of the said Robert, a fitting portion according to the ordinance made by the king and council; he grants to her, in pity of her poverty, that of the said lands she shall have his lands in Exton, Saltesford and Calverton which have been extended at 9l. 9s. 4d. a year, for the maintenance of herself and her children until the king provide for her a fixed maintenance of the said lands.

Grant, by way of grace and humanity, to Juliana wife of Hugh de Dun, the king's enemy, who is in prison, that of his lands in Bridehall which the king lately gave to Bernard Johannis, king's serjeant,