1266.

Membrane 19—cont.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for Roger de Colevill.

Grant to the prior and monks of St. Andrew's, Rochester [in the margin Northampton] that they may carry their own corn and victuals without hindrance and without prise by land or water from their manors to their said manor (sic); with mandate to the constable of the castle of Windsor and of the Tower of London and all persons not to vex them or their men in so doing, after taking an oath of them that they are not avowing the corn and victuals of others.

Signification to the archbishop of Tuam of the royal assent to the election of Master Denis, archdeacon of Achnor, to be bishop of that place.

Simple protection until Christmas for Richard de Bamfeud.

Safe conduct until Midsummer for Maurice, son of Maurice, coming to the king in England.

The like for one year for John son of Urse.

Simple protection for one year for the prior of Montacute.

Grant to Stephen son of William de Cornhull, citizen of London, in consideration of his services and at the instance of G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, William le Valencia the king's brother and John Giffard, that he shall be quit for life from all manner of tallages, prizes, prets and other exactions and demands which could be exacted from him by occasion of his lands or rents or other things or merchandise, as well in the said city as without, by the king or his bailiffs, burgers or others; on pain of grave forfeiture.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger de Leyburn, to Philip Marmiun the younger for the death of Reynold Creye.

Grant to Aunera daughter of Jacob of Oxford, Jewess, in compensation for her damages and grievances by the king's enemies in the time of the disturbance in the realm, that the pledges named in the chirographs made between her and her debtors concerning debts due to her in whosoever hands they be, the counterparts of which chirographs are in the chests of the chirographers, shall be seized into her hands according to law and the custom of the Jewry, until the said debts are fully paid, unless the debtors can show that they ought to be quit of the said debts.

The following have like letters:

Benedict of Winchester, Jew.
Licoricia of Winchester, Jewess.
Jacob son of Master Mosseus, of Oxford, Jew.

Simple protection for one year for the abbot and convent of Eynesham.

The like for five years for Master John Gileyn.