

1266.

Membrane 17—cont.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for Walter de Balum, provided that he stand his trial in the king's court and that he do no damage in the meantime.

Simple protection and safe conduct until Midsummer for Roger de Bradleght, going home and thence passing whither he will.

Simple protection for seven years for the leprous brethren of the hospital of St. Laurence, Bukingham.

The like for one year for Thomas de Farendon, at the instance of Gilbert de Preston.

The like until Michaelmas for Gilbert de Sancto Laudo.

Safe conduct until Midsummer for Hugh son of Nicholas de Ebroicis, coming to the king's court.

Presentation of Master William de Clifford to the church of Bekeswell, in the king's gift by reason of the lands of William de Bekewell, the king's enemy, being in the king's hands; directed to R. bishop of Norwich.

MEMBRANE 16.

Pardon, at the instance of Oliver de Dynant, to Walter de Wynescote for the death of Robert de Duuland whom he killed in self-defence.

The like to Geoffrey a la Porte of Yildresleye for the death of Robert Prik, as it appears by inquisition made by Simon de Hedon and Walter de Ludham that he killed him in self defence.

Whereas William de Breuse owes no ward or service to the king's castle of Kermerdyn, and yet, at the request of the constable of that castle he has frequently given aid to him of his mere will and still does so; the king is unwilling that such aid prejudice him as a precedent.

Power to G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, to take the king's prises of goshawks, gerfalcons and falcons, in the towns of Lenn, Boston and Jernemue for this turn, and to have his will thereof; with mandate to all bailiffs to permit the earl and his bailiffs to do this.

Pardon to Nicholas de Brimesgrave for the death of John le Blik of Cnabewurth.

May 8. Presentation of William de Birley to the church of St. Mary, Northampton. Nottingham, directed to the dean and chapter of York.

May 9. Ratification of a grant which Edward the king's son made by Northampton. letters patent, at the instance of G. de Clare, earl of Gloucester and Hertford, to the earl's citizens of Kylkenny, that they may take murage for three years to fortify their town, as the neighbouring cities of those parts have been accustomed to take.