Grant to William de Pomes and Simon de Geynville, for arrears of their yearly fees which they used to receive at the Exchequer and because they have remitted the said fee to the king, of the wardship of all the lands of William Ward who held in chief of the barony of the archbishopric of York, which pertains to the king by reason of the voidance of the said see; so that they no longer take that fee from the king.

_Vacated because otherwise below._

Grant to William de Pomes and Simon de Geynville, for arrears of their said fee of the wardship aforesaid.

Power to Adam de Montgomery to receive into the king's peace the men of the said Adam of Aston Kelemund and Ludham, who withdrew from the king's allegiance; provided that they behave faithfully thereafter.

Simple protection until Christmas for Roger Beler.

Safe conduct for Philip de Drayton coming to the king's court.

_Membrane 10._

July 13. Simple protection, until Easter, for Baldric de Nunneton.

The like to the following:—

Thomas de Caunvill, for one year.
The abbot and convent of Stanley, without term.
Richard de Cliff', for one year.
Norman de Wotton, until Christmas.
Thomas Stede, until Easter.
Reiner, vicar of the church of Ulseby, for one year.
The prior and brethren of the house of St. John the Evangelist, Waterford, in Ireland, for one year.

July 15. Power to Warin de Bassingburn to receive into the king's peace
John de Cimierio, John Alvery, Jordan his brother, Chaddus William, 'wodeward,' Robert de la Chaumbre and Nicholas Tiffar', men of Andrew de Estelegh; so that they stand their trial if any will proceed against them touching any trespasses.

Protection for one year for E' de Lanimeloy; provided that the kings have not given his lands and that he stand his trial &c.

Simple protection for one year for the following:—

William de Mortuo Mari, parson of the church of Suthelmeham.
Sibyl de Dyve.
Ralph de Wardwick.
Stephen le Buteler, chaplain, and Peter his brother.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger de Clifford, to John de Haliwell, of all trespasses which he was said to have done against the king in the time of the late disturbance in the realm; grant also that he may keep to him and his heirs any lands or other things which he may purchase hereafter; provided that he and they behave faithfully.