Membrane 1—cont.

Oct. 21. Kenilworth. Notification that for the liberation of Antoninus Bek, king's clerk, lately imprisoned in the castle of Kenilworth, the king has delivered John la Ware the elder his prisoner from his prison, granting that he shall not hereafter be imprisoned for any trespass committed against the king or his faithful by the said John or his sons by occasion of the disturbance in the realm; and for the observance of the premises, the king submits himself to the coercion of the legate by ecclesiastical censure.

Pardon, at the instance of Henry son of the king of Almain, the king's nephew, to John Deudone for the death of . . . .

Safe conduct until Christmas for Isabel Espigornel coming to the realm with harness and her own household and goods.

Oct. 24. Kenilworth. Licence for Robert Burnel, clerk of Edward the king's son, to enclose his wood of Omnib[ery] within the forest of Salop with a dyke and hedge and make a park of it and hold it so in perpetuity; as it appears by inquisition ad quod damnum made by Roger de Leyburn, justice of the forest on this side Trent, and Warin de Bassingburn steward of the forest between the bridges of Oxford and Stanford, that this will not be to the nuisance of the forest of Salop.

Pardon to the said Robert and his tenants of the manor of Langeleye of 15s. a year which they were bound to pay for certain assarts made in the woods of the manors of Langele, Rokkeleye, Hokehales and Acton Burnel, within the forest of Salop, and heretofore arrented at the Exchequer, so that they hold them henceforth quit of waste and regard. Pardon to him also of the trespass, which his ancestors made in alienating the king's serjeanty of Langele without the licence of the king or his predecessors, by occasion of which trespass that serjeanty has been taken into the king's hands and pardon to him of the arrentation of 20s. made by the king for the said serjeanty by occasion of the said alienation. Pardon also to the said Robert and his tenants of the arrears of the said 15s. a year for the said assarts and of the 20s. a year for the arrentation.

Oct. 25. Kenilworth. Commitment to Thomas de Clare of the castle of Colecestre and the hundred of Tenring to keep for five years from All Saints, rendering yearly at the Exchequer as much as Matthew de la Mare, who had the keeping, rendered.

Mandate to Richard de Suthcbirch, sheriff of Essex and Hertford, to deliver them to him.

Writ de intendendo to the tenants.

Grant that whatever the said Thomas shall lay out in the repair of the said castle and the king's houses therein, by view and testimony of good men, shall be allowed to him.

Simple protection, until Easter for Thomas de Hastingses.

The like for one year for the following:—

Emelina, countess of Wolvester.
