1266.

Membrane 36—cont.

merchants at the Easter exchequer 51 Henry III or at the wardrobe; together with the damages, usuries if any, and interest, and to save them harmless.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for Thomas de Colecestre.
The like, for one year, for Peter de Lindewode, parson of the church of Alkreton.
The like, until Easter, for Geoffrey de Childewyk.

Grant for life to Alan Burnel of the 18l. 13s. 4d. which the abbot of Clive is bound to render at the Exchequer yearly for the fee farm of the manor of Brumpton, to hold for his life and to his executors for one year after his death, so that they may have the said sum for the execution of his will.

Mandate in pursuance to the said abbot of Clive; with mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to allow it to him.

[Nov. 4.] Pardon to William de Blakeburn for the death of Siward de Burnhulle; as it appears by inquisition made by Richard de Middelton that he killed him by misadventure.

Whereas Albert, duke of Brunneswyk, the king's kinsman, has by the king's counsel married Alice de Monte Ferrato, niece of queen Eleanor, the king, willing on this account to have regard to him in gifts, as he is bound, wills that he receive next Easter and Michaelmas and so on from year to year, such portion as befits the king's estate and the realm, so that if the king's estate improve, the duke's portion shall improve, and if the king's estate diminish, which God forbid, it shall diminish. [Foderter]

Nov. 5. Mandate to bailiffs and other ministers in the bishoprics of Durham and Carlisle to cause juries to come when required before Geoffrey de Uppeshal and John de Hese, whom the king has deputed in those parts to enquire touching certain matters which affect the king's estate and utility: and to compel them if necessary to become sworn.

Mandate to Master William de Bakepux, king's clerk, escheator in Ireland, to restore the temporalities of the bishopric of Down to Master Thomas de Lydel, whose election in the cathedral church of St. Patrick, Down, of the Benedictine order, has been confirmed by the Pope.

Writ de intendando to the tenants.

Nov. 5. Pardon, at the instance of Edward the king's son, to John Wyssy, burgess of Bristol, of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived against him by reason of his trespasses during the late disturbance in the realm; and mandate to all bailiffs not to molest him, his men or his goods.

Whereas the king lately commanded the whole service due to the king from the realm to come to him at Kenilworth, and the abbot of Abingdon is doing his service fully in the castle of Windesor; the king is unwilling that the abbot shall be grieved by double service,