Nov. 14. Grant to Robert de Nevill, to whom the king lately committed the castle of Bamburg, that the king will allow him his expenses which by the king's order he has had and will have in the munition thereof on account of the late disturbance, by view of lawful men, in debts which he owes at the Exchequer.

Safe conduct for eight days for Roger de Remes, Nicholas de la Hus’ and Roger Godeberd and three in their company, coming to the king to treat of peace for themselves and those in their company.

Simple protection for one year for William de Rye.

Grant to R. bishop of St. David’s that if any of those who were against the king in the time of the disturbance in the realm wish to sell any lands of the tenure and fee of the bishop, he may buy them.

Confirmation of a grant by Warin de Bassingburn, steward of the forest between the bridges of Oxford and Stamford, to Richard de Ardern of the bailiwick of the forest of Clyve, for the life of the said Warin.

Grant to Ralph de Gorges, son of Joan de Gorges, to whom the king lately granted the manor of Porstok for her life, that he shall have it for five years from her death in consideration of his expenses in the king's service in the time of the disturbance in the realm.

Nov. 15. Commitment during pleasure to William de Sancto Omero of the hundreds of Humilierd, Taverham, Walesham and Blafeld which are extended by the sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk at 15/., rendering yearly the said 15/.

[Headed in the margin: De hundredis &c. commissis Alano la Zuch.]

Protection and safe conduct for Arnold de Synhargiis, merchant of Cahors, and his men, coming to the realm to trade; and grant that he be quit of all prise except the usual customs.

Grant to R. bishop of St. David's that if any persons wish to sell lands which are of his tenure or fee, he shall be nearer than any other to buy them; provided that he will give as much as any other.

Nov. 16. Protection for one year for Andrew de Boythorp; on condition that he stand his trial &c.

The like for William le Rus of Lygh.

Nov. 16. Pardon to Henry de Rokeby, Roger de Walebrum, Henry son of Alan Ladel and Michael le Vacher for the death of Thomas de Denet, Richard son of Adam de Denet, and Richard de Denet, as it appears by inquisition made by Richard de Middleton that the said Thomas, Richard and Richard, being pursued with hue and cry as thieves and robbers not permitting themselves to be brought to justice, were killed.