Protection, at the instance of John de Baillol, for the abbot, monks and brethren of the abbey of Dundraynan in Galway and their men, coming to England with wool and other goods to trade with; and licence for them to buy corn and other victuals in the realm and take them to Galway for their maintenance; provided that they pay the usual customs on the said wool, corn and goods, and keep in the king's fealty.

Nov. 18. Grant to William de Grey of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Anketin de Frechenvill, tenant in chief, with knights' fees, advowsons of churches and dowers when they fall in, and the marriage of the heirs.

Nov. 18. Power to the dean of York to provide for Master Nicholas de Curtenay, king's clerk, in the first ecclesiastical benefice falling void in the archbishopric of York, during the present voidance; saving to the king the collations of dignities in that archbishopric.

Exemption for life, at the instance of Edmund the king's son, of Henry le Waleys, citizen of London, from prets, prises, exactions and tallages by reason of his lands, tenements or rents, goods or merchandise, within or without the city; on condition that as often as the city is tallaged he shall pay one mark for tallage; and saving the king's due and ancient prises.

Pardon, at the instance of Adam de Gesemuth, to Thomas son of Hugh le Cressuner for the death of William Warde.

Nov. 18. Protection until Easter for William son of Alice, provided that he stand his trial &c.

Grant to the subprior and convent of Kenilworth, for a fine of 40 marks, of the keeping of the priory for this time upon its next voidance by the cession or death of Humphrey the prior; saving the advowsons of churches, wards, reliefs and escheats belonging thereto.

Nov. 18. Grant to William de Aete of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Richard de Anesy who held in chief, with the marriage of the heirs.

Pardon to Baldwin Wake of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm, and admission of him to the king's peace; and the king is unwilling that he be further molested in his person or lands; on condition that he stand to the king's award (dictum) concerning him and be of good behaviour henceforth.

Nov. 16. Pardon, at the instance of brother Robert de Boynton, preceptor of Belsall, to Henry son of Simon le Fevre for the death of William le Waleys and of any consequent outlawry.

The like to the following:—

Robert de Billesley, for the death of Henry de Hulle.