1267.

Membrane 29—cont.

Grant to Aaron son of Leo le Blunt, Jew of London, in consideration of losses inflicted on him by the king's enemies in the time of the disturbance in the realm, that his pledges named in chirographs made between him and his debtors of debts which he can reasonably shew to be due to him and the pledges named in chirographs made between Leo his father, long since deceased, and his debtors, for which debts Aaron lately made fine with the king, in whossoever hands they be shall be seized into the hands of the said Aaron according to the law and custom of the Jewry, until the said debts be levied and paid; to endure until Michaelmas and a year after.

Jan. 10. Commitment to Robert de Brus of the castle of Carlisle to keep Westminster during pleasure so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer. Mandate to Roger de Leyburn to deliver it to him.

Grant to Stephen de Eddeworth of 20 marks a year to be taken at the Exchequer by the name of a fee; until the king provide for him more bountifully.

Simple protection for one year for John Maynard.

Whereas the king, by occasion of certain trespasses committed against the king and certain of his lieges in the port of Sandwich, lately took into his hands the bailiwick of the town of Sandwich, and the houses, possessions, customs, rights and liberties, which the prior and convent of Christchurch, Canterbury, have in the port; as he would not that by occasion of such taking the prior and convent incur damage, he has restored to them the said bailiwick, houses, &c. and he therefore commands the barons and bailiffs of the said port to make restitution of these to them.

Mandate to all bailiffs and others not to do or permit any harm to William de Sancto Botulpho, baker of O. cardinal deacon of St. Adrian's, the papal legate, whom he has deputed to buy corn, bread and other victuals as shall be expedient; for such time as William shall be in such office of the legate.

Safe conduct until the Purification for William de Plumberg.

Admission of Laurence de Plumberewe into the king's peace, on the mainprise of William de Wakindon and Ralph Martel of the county of Essex, that he will stand to the award of Kenilworth; and remission of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him on account of the trespasses which he was said to have done in the time of the disturbance.

Whereas John de Greylv, seneschal of Gascony, has granted at farm or cense by letters patent to William [Gill'o in the text, Gilb'to in the margin] de Portu, Gausbert and Peter de Portu brothers, James Donecet, William Johannis and others their fellows, citizens and merchants of Cahors, and others the great custom of Bordeaux of the avalage of wines and yssak et custumam Reyam there, for one year from Hilary next, for 15,000 new pounds of Bordeaux; the king confirms this and will defend them herein.