Membrane 29—cont.

1267.
Jan. 12.
Westminster.
Simple protection for one year for Robert de Ebbegate.
The like, until Michaelmas, for Richard de Herlaue.

Commitment during pleasure to William de Birlay, king's clerk, of the abbey of Bardeneye, now void, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him.

Admission of William de Sancto Claro of the county of Kent into the king's peace on the mainprise of Peter de Siministre of the county of Essex and John de Bentleye of the same, that he will stand to the award of Kenilworth, and remission of the king's indignation and rancour of mind against him.
The like letters for William de la Mare, on the mainprise of the same John and Peter.
The like to William de Monasterio, John de Monasterio, Simon le Daneyes and Philip de Borham, on the like mainprise.

Jan. 12.
Nicholas de Hagwrthingham and Peter de Barton, monks of Bardeney, coming to the king's presence with letters of their chapter announcing the death of William their abbot, have licence to elect.

Jan. 12.
Westminster.
Whereas the king has enjoined upon John le Bretun to take victuals and other necessaries against his instant coming to St. Edmunds, in the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk, by the counsel and aid of the sheriff of those counties, and has commanded the said sheriff to pay for such victuals by the view of lawful men; he promises that the amount shall be allowed to the sheriff in the issues of the said counties, as soon as the king is informed of such amount.

Appointment, during pleasure, of Robert Aguilon to keep the counties of Surrey and Sussex and the castle of Gildelford, he rendering yearly at the Exchequer as much as Roger de Loges used to render.

Renewal to David Brid of Holecumbe of the pardon for the death of Hugh Hopechor, which the king when he was in Gascony granted to him in the thirty-seventh year by letters patent, the said letters having been taken from him in the time of the disturbance in the realm.

Simple protection until Michaelmas for Henry de Holeweton.

Jan. 15.
Westminster.
Grant for life to Adam de Cestreton, king's clerk, that he shall have his houses within the close of the site of the place of the Converts, London, quit of livery of the king's marshals or of the liverymen of the inns in the king's court or without, so that no one by the king or his ministers or any others shall enter or be lodged therein, or his horses, dogs or other animals or goods be placed therein, against his will. And because the king has committed to him the said place, he wishing to provide for the prosperity and indemnity of the said house, which he founded in honour of the Holy Trinity for the