1267.

Membrane 27—cont.

Simple protection for one year for William son of William the Smith of Stowe; on condition that if he have committed any offence against the king in the time of the disturbance he shall stand to the award as above.

Simple protection for one year for Margery de Esse of Henle.

Feb. 7. Licence for Robert de Ros of Belvoir to enclose his place of Belvoir, St. Edmunds, co. Lincoln, with a dyke and wall of stone and lime and crenellate the same.

Simple protection for one year for James de Meroh.

Presentation of Master Richard de Clifford to the church of Clawurth; directed to the [archbishop] elect of York; and another presentation directed to the bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.

Membrane 26.

Feb. 9. Substitution of Master Roger de Hakeford, in the place of John St. Edmunds, le Bretun who cannot attend, to make purveyances in the counties of Suffolk and Norfolk to the use of the king and the army; with mandate to all bailiffs of hundreds and market towns to be of counsel and aid to him.

Simple protection for Robert Bulloc on condition that he stand to the award, &c.

Simple protection for one year for the almoner of the monastery of St. Edmunds.

Grant to Nicholas de Meulinges and his heirs of all the lands in Merselande late of Clement son of Geoffrey de Wigenhale the king's enemy, so that if they exceed the value of 100s. a year the surplus shall remain to the king; to hold according to the award of Kenilworth.

Pardon, at the instance of Robert Burnel, clerk of Edward the king's son, to Nicholas Colle of Shrewsbury for the death of Adam Pride of Shrewsbury.

Because the king has appointed the abbot of Rameseye to defend with the whole service due from him the town and parts of Rameseye against the king's enemies and rebels, he acquits him of the sending of his service to St. Edmunds for this time.

Simple protection for two years for the abbot of Blanchland (de Alba Landa).

Safe conduct for one year for Reynold de Paves, merchant of Edward the king's son, in going through the realm with his merchandise.

Protection for one year for Simon, vicar of the church of Quappelade; provided that if he committed any offence against the king in the time of the disturbance, he shall stand to the award, &c.