Membrane 26—con.:

Edward the king’s son, 100l. of the king’s gift: to Queen Eleanor, 133l. 6s. 8d. of the king’s gift, and to Edmund the king’s son 53l. 18s. 8d. of the king’s gift; which 1,030 marks the king has ordered the bailiffs of the city of London to pay to the said merchants out of their fine.

Whereas the king lately granted to John Renger his clerk the year and waste of the lands late of Alvred le Keu, hanged for felony, saving to the king 20 marks which the sheriff of Essex ought to have paid in the wardrobe, for which cause he has several times commanded the sheriff to deliver the year and waste to him, but as yet he has put off paying; the king grants that William la Zusche, keeper of the peace in that county, shall cause him to have the said year and waste.

Feb. 13. Notification that John le Fauconer, king’s clerk, keeper of the St. Edmunds, hanaper, delivered at divers times 1,286l. 12s. issues of the seal in the forty-ninth and fiftieth years, by order of the king, to the following persons, to wit, in the forty-ninth year to the keepers of the king’s works of Westminster 523l. 3s. 4d.: to Master Walter, the king’s painter, 60s.: to Giles, clerk of the king’s wardrobe, 9l.: and in the fiftieth year to the keeper of the works aforesaid 431l. 15s. 4d.: to Nicholas de Leukenore, keeper of the king’s wardrobe, 242l.: to William de Sancta Eremete 6l. 13s. 4d.: to Imbert de Munferant 13l. 6s. 8d.: to Bernard de Burdel’ 6l. 13s. 4d.: to Geoffrey de Melac’ 6l. 13s. 4d.: to Tdric de Alemaund 6l. 13s. 4d.: to Andrew de Lentino 6l. 13s. 4d.: and to Peter de Chaumpvent 13l. 6s. 8d.: which 1,286l. 12s. the king wishes to be allowed in his account.

Membrane 25.

Feb. 14. Protection for Thomas Thorol of Wisebech merchant, provided that the king have not given his lands and that he stand his trial, and that he stand to the award &c.

The like for one year for William de Mortuo Mari of Lenn.

Pardon to Roger son of Martin de Berehusse for the death of William de Upton, as it appears by inquisition made by G. de Preston that he killed him in self defence.

Pardon to Baldwin Wake, who by his letters patent has submitted himself in high and low to the king’s award touching all trespasses laid to his charge in the time of the late disturbance; on condition that he be of good behaviour and give the sum of three years’ value of his lands to the persons to whom the king has given the lands, to have those lands again. But this is not to apply to any lands, dowers or other escheats falling in to him since Sunday before St. Michael the Baptist (sic) last, when he submitted.

Simple protection for one year for Robert Picot.