Simple protection until Michaelmas for the following:—
The abbess and nuns of Lacok.
Maud countess of Gloucester and Hertford.

Confirmation of a grant by Edward the king's son to Simon de Aqua Mortua, merchant of Bordeaux, that touching all his wines and other merchandise which he shall bring into Ireland and England he shall be quit of all prise except the ancient prise of one tun before the mast and another tun behind the mast, and the new aid provided for the said Edward, which in such a grace as this the said Edward reserves to himself: and of naam of his goods for any debt or offence of another except only his own debt, for three years.

Simple protection for one year for William de Conflens, archdeacon of Hereford.

Grant to John de Colcestre, the king's almoner, of the wardship of the land and heirs of Robert de Trumpinton who held in chief, with the marriage of the heirs.

Because the king has learned for certain that Adam de Cesbreton has applied almost 50 marks of his own money to the building and repairing of his houses within the close of the House of Converts, London, which houses after his death will remain to the said House of Converts in perpetuity; the king wills that the said houses be henceforth repaired in their roofs and other repairs at the cost of the House of Converts; and he therefore commands the master, chaplains and converts to cause this to be done henceforth.

Protection for one year for William de Beleby, so that if the king have given away his lands he shall stand to the award &c.

Safe conduct until the second Sunday in Lent for Ralph son of Fulk coming to the king's court to treat of his peace.

The like until Michaelmas for Master John de Aberden, going to the town of Lenn and beyond seas and returning again.

Grant to John de Kirkeby king's clerk, dean of Wymburn, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of Ralph de Sancto Georgio, who held in chief, which wardship the king heretofore gave to William de Sancta Ermyna, and he surrendered to the king the use of the said John; to hold to the said John with wards, reliefs, escheats, knights' fees, dowers when they fall in, and with the marriage of the heirs.

For this wardship the said John gave to William 200 marks in hand.

Simple protection for one year for the prior and convent of Wymundeham.
The like for Sampson de Sivelesho.

Safe conduct until Sunday before Mid Lent for Denis de Cantuaria, clerk, John Brekemast, Peter de Bernewell, and William de Freyeng.
