1267.

Membrane 16—cont.

Simple protection for one year for the following:—
Dera de Cantebr'.
Henry de Hibernia and Cecily his wife.
The abbot and convent of St. Edward's, Latele.
John Peche and Geoffrey his brother.

Grant for life to Ralph le Avener, king's serjeant, for his long service, of the office which Taillefer de Scaccario had in the Exchequer in keeping the door of the Exchequer.

June 9.
Stratford.

Because it is shown that the dean of Arches, sometime master of the House of Converts, London, and other masters of that house, have been accustomed to receive their whole robes twice a year; the king commands Richard de Ewell and Hugh de Turri, buyers of the wardrobe, and others buyers of the wardrobe, to let Adam de Cestreton, king's clerk, who has expended of his own in buildings and other works for the utility of the said house, and whom the king has appointed to be master and keeper thereof, his whole robes, to wit, a tunic, supertunic and cloak (pallium) with furs and sendal fitting, twice a year from the wardrobe so long as he be master.

June 10.
Stratford.

Exemption for life of Adam de Barton, for his faithful service from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff, &c. against his will.
Exemption for life of Walter Tuke, for his laudable service, from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made justice, sheriff, &c. against his will.

Simple protection for one year for the following:—
Philip le Taillur.
Hugh de Baudement, parson of the church of Liz.
Henry de Lexinton, parson of the church of Tayden.
Robert de Wyllaghesham.

June 11.
Stratford.

Grant for long service to Emery de Veilevine of the wardship of the lands in Buthorp late of Reynold de Leyham, who held in chief.

Acknowledgment of the payment by Master Richard de Stanes, guardian of the bishopric of London, into the wardrobe to N. de Leuk', keeper of the wardrobe, on Saturday the feast of St. Barnabas, 51 Henry III, of 27l. 13s. 4d. of the issues of the said bishopric.

Exemption for life, at the instance of Nicholas son of Martin, of John Peverel from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff, &c. against his will.

Membrane 15.

June 15.
Stratford.

Whereas the king has had ill-will towards the earl of Gloucester by reason of his stay in the city of London and other things which have been done since his departure from Wales in coming to London, and since then, and for things which are done both by himself and by others of his meines, his company and his friendship, and by the people of London within the city and without and in divers counties and countries, by land and sea; matters have since been appeased by