Membrane 13—cont.

Grant to Walter de Pedwurdin of the hundred of Bradeford, co. Salop, to keep for his life; so that he render at the Exchequer 8 marks a year.

Pardon, at the instance of Ottobon, cardinal deacon of St. Adrian's, the papal legate, to Thomas son of Robert de Carleton for the death of Walter de Tirston, clerk, as it appears by inquisition made by John de Cokefeld that of his own temerity he rushed upon the sword of the said Thomas who was then constable of the city of Norwich, when the said Thomas and the commonalty of the said city were assembled for a show of arms in defence of that town against the coming of the malefactors of the isle of Ely, so that he wounded him by mischance and he died afterwards.

Simple protection for one year for the following:

Alexander de Burenbrig.
Peter de Lavinton.

June 30.
[St. Paul's, London.] Because the king is informed that Adam de Cestreton, king's clerk, has applied great sums to the amount of almost 50 marks about the building and repair of the houses which he has in the close of the House of Converts, London, and that these houses after his decease will remain to the House of Converts in perpetuity; the king wills that these houses be maintained henceforth at the cost of the said House; and commands the master, chaplains and other converts to cause this to be done without difficulty.

June 30.
St. Paul's, London.

Grant for life to the said Adam that he shall hold the said houses free from all livery of the king's marshals or distributors of inns (liberatorum hospiciorum) in the king's court or without, so that no person by the king or his ministers or others shall enter the said houses or any of them, or be lodged in them, or horses, dogs or any animals or goods of the king or others be put therein, without his licence and special will.

Remission to William de Pincebek of the county of Lincoln, of the king's indignation and rancour of mind towards him by occasion of trespasses which he was said to have done against him in the time of the late disturbance, and pardon to him of the said trespasses; on the mainprise of Robert son of Laurence de Gosbercherich, Walter de Pincebek, John de Kirketon and Peter de Lund of the county of Lincoln made before the king that he will stand to the award of Kenilworth.
