1267.

Membrane 12—cont.

Grant in frank almoin to the Friars Preachers of Bamburg of 10 acres of land of the king's demesne there, whereof 6 acres lie in the old stank of Bamburg and 4 acres in a field (cultura) called Grenewelleslad, and the 10 acres are extended at 40s. a year.

July 7.
St. Paul's,
London.

Grant to Richard de Hereford, for his long service to the king as remembrancer of the Exchequer, and Christiana his wife that he and his heirs shall be for ever quit of tallages assessed in the town of Hereford.

July 7.
St. Paul's,
London.

Whereas Maud Malet desires to serve God perpetually in a cell (reclusorio) under the church of St. Dunstan, which church belongs to the House of Converts without London, the king, thinking it to be pious to accede to her wishes, commands Adam de Cestreton his clerk, master of the said house and the converts inhabiting there, that having first received security for their indemnity, and for the preservation of the said church, they shall assign to her there some fit place which she can build upon and inhabit, provided that she bears herself honourably.

Acknowledgment of the receipt from the archdeacon of Barkshire in the church of Salisbury and the chancellor of Shrewsbury, collectors of the tenth granted to the king by the apostolic see, out of the tenth collected in the city and diocese of Salisbury for the terms of Easter and Midsummer of the first year of the said grant, 250l. 6s. 8d. by the hands of Master Bonettus de Sancto Quintino, king's clerk, and Master Simon, official of the said archdeacon. Also Master Bonettus, of money received from the above collectors beyond the said sum, has spent by occasion of the said money being brought to the king 3L, which it is fitting and the king wills shall be computed in the said tenth.

July 8.
St. Paul's,
London.

Writ of aid for the king's nephew Henry son of the king of Almain, to whom the king, immediately after the conflict at Northampton, gave a ship and all the goods late of William de Furnivall, taken against the king in the said town, in the recovery of the said goods.

Simple protection for one year for the following:

- Henry son of Ellis de Esseburn.
- Peter de Cranemer.

Safe conduct until the feast of St. Peter's Chains for Roger son of Reynold de Bretinghurst, coming to the king's court to treat of his peace.

David, precentor, and Geoffrey, treasurer, of the church of Cork, bringing the king news of the death of their bishop, have licence to elect.

Pardon to Henry Scot for the death of William de Drengou; as it appears by inquisition made by Richard de Middelton that he killed him by misadventure.

Pardon in like terms to William de Stangat for the death of Desiderata.