1267.

Membrane 8—cont.

Safe conduct for fifteen days for the archdeacon and proctors of the chapter of St. Asaph coming to the legate by his mandate.

Simple protection for one year for the following:—
Geoffrey Bonel.
Giles de Erdinton.

The like for two years for Master John de Brimmeshop, parson of the church of Torkeleston.

Sept. 4. Grant, at the instance of Richard le Norreys, king’s clerk, to Henry Shrewsbury, prior, citizen of Winchester, that he be not made mayor or bailiff of the said town against his will, as the king is informed that he cannot attend to such office by reason of bodily weakness; addressed to the bailiffs and good men of Winchester.

Pardon to William de la Ford for the death of Richard le Tannur, as it appears by inquisition made by Laurence del Brok that he killed him in self defence.

Sept. 3. Simple protection for three years for Master John de Alvenesherth, archdeacon of Suffolk.

The like for one year for the following:—
Master Robert de Sancta Agatha.
Master Roger de Gloucestria.
Peter le Rus.
Ida de Bello Campo.

Sept. 4. Safe conduct until the morrow of the nativity of the Blessed Mary for David son of Ennyaun, Enniaun son of Kayrard and their fellows and their colleagues, envoys of Llewelin son of Griffin, with their households and things, coming to the king to treat of peace. And for their safer conduct the king has appointed Geoffrey de Geynvull and Hamo Lestrange to conduct them.

Sept. 3. Grant, with the assent of the warden and brethren of the king’s hospital of St. John without the East Gate of Oxford, to the warden and scholars of the house of Scholars of Merton, Oxford, dwelling there in study, that from the water of Charewell through the area of the chapel of St. Cross, the advowson whereof with the advowson of the mother church the king lately conferred on the said scholars, or under the said area, as shall be expedient, they may draw off a sufficient rivulet through the middle of the said hospital and so cross the great street without the said gate transversely as far as the soil (jundum) of the said hospital towards the south and so through the soil and ditches by the barton of the prior of St. Frideswide’s to the wall of the town of Oxford and thence by the wall towards the place of the said Scholars, so that they conduct that water opposite their soil under the said wall by the said gutter to their place within the wall for the cleansing of their court and to have their easements of it, and that that water go out thence without the wall in a like gutter to the ditch which leads towards the house of the prior aforesaid. And the king wills that they may thus conduct the said rivulet when they get an opportunity, so that they may not suffer delay and not be