- Henry de Werlingham, chaplain.

Sept. 8. Notification that the service due from the bishop of Coventry and Shrewsbury to Lichfield in the present expedition summoned at Shrewsbury against Llewelin son of Griffin and his accomplices, the king's enemies and rebels, has been attorned by the king to be intendant to Edmund his son in doing what the king has enjoined on him.

Sept. 9. Commitment to Robert de Rogate king's serjeant and Ralph de Shrewsbury of the king's poor hospital of Portesmuth, until the brethren thereof have elected a prior, so that the issues be applied to the use of the brethren by view of the chancellor, as has been accustomed to be done in other voidances; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to them.

Simple protection for one year for John de Willamesham and Robert his brother; provided that they stand their trial &c.

Sept. 10. Power to Geoffrey de Geynville and Robert Walraund to treat with Llewelin son of Griffin touching the peace of him and his concerning all contentions and discords between the king and him and all trespasses on both sides. Power also to them to conduct him to the king, if he wishes to come, or those whom he shall see fit to send, to treat of such peace; until Saturday next the feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross, and for the whole of that day.

Because for the security of the county of Southampton and the parts adjacent the king has appointed Gerard de la Grue, sheriff of Southampton, to be keeper of the peace there, and wishes that the service due from the bishop of Winchester in the instant expedition to be intendant upon him for the preservation of the peace there, the king commands him, with the said service and the whole posse of the county to intend manfully to the preservation of the peace. And the king has commanded William de Wintreshull, steward of the said bishop, to cause the said service to come to him to such places as he shall make known so often as there shall be need.

Pardon to Nicholas le Paunier for the death of Richard de Heselwod; as it appears by inquisition made before the king that he killed him in self defence.

Grant, at the instance of Edward the king's son, to the burgesses and good men of Montgomery that they and their heirs shall be for ever quit of the payment of murage throughout the realm.
