Sept. 25. Licence, for life for Richard de Castellione, parson of the church of Maddele, to hunt with his own dogs the fox, the hare, the badger and the cat through all the king’s forests in the county of Salop; so that on account of this grant he take not of the king’s great deer or course in warrens.

Sept. 23. Grant to the prior and convent of the church of the Apostles Peter and Paul, Shrewsbury, for a fine of 50 marks, of all the issues of that abbey as well in tallages of their men as in lands and other things during the next voidance by the cession or death of William their abbot; so that no bailiff of the king shall intermeddle therein, and they shall have free administration of the goods of the abbey, with wards, reliefs and escheats, saving the advowsons of churches which fall void during the said voidance.

And be it known that the king has remitted to the abbot and convent all rancour and indignation of mind conceived towards them by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm, and pardoned all trespasses said to have been committed by them in adhering to S. sometime earl of Leicester, and his accomplices at the time of the said disturbance.

Licence for the Friars Minors of Shrewsbury to enlarge their gate through the wall of that town, so that carts can go in and out.

Safe conduct until Martinmas for Roger Paytvyn, coming to the king’s court.

Mandate to the collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Ely to pay to G. count of St. Pol, 334l. 4d. for the expenses of his knights, sergeants and esquires (armigerorum) and for the loss of his houses at the time that he was in the king’s service in England. He is to pay him at this Michaelmas; the king having lately ordered the legate and W. archbishop of York and the archdeacons of Canterbury and Clyveland, receivers of the tenth granted to the king by the pope, to pay it to him last Easter.

Appointment of William de Sancto Omero, John Lovel and Simon de Creye to enquire in the counties of Kent, Surrey, Sussex, Middlesex, Hertford, Suffolk, Norfolk, Cambridge and Huntingdon, in pursuance of an ordinance made in the parliament at Winchester, in the forty-ninth year that seisin should be restored to the king of all lands seized by anyone by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm whereby sheriffs and other bailiffs took such lands into the king’s hands, received the issues, and are bound to answer for the same at the Exchequer, who took the said lands into the king’s hand and received the issues, and who ought to answer for the same.

Sept. 29. Commission to Roger de Sumery, Hugh de Mortuo Mari and Roger de Hopton, sheriff of Salop and Stafford, to do and complete all things contained in the form of the peace made between the king and his faithful Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales. And the king has commanded all bailiffs and others of the march between the county of Chester and the lands of the earl of Gloucester to be intendant to them herein as they shall let these know, provided
