moreover that the king's peace be observed in the said parts to the said Llewelin and his.

Guy de Bryan and William de Abrewaret have like letters in the parts of South Wales to do and complete the premises; provided that the king's peace be observed to the said Llewelin in the said parts, to wit, as well within the lands of the earl of Gloucester as elsewhere in those parts.

Whereas Geoffrey de Nevill, lately deceased, who held of the king in chief, was bound in divers debts at the Exchequer, to wit, as well those of John his father as those of his ancestors, the king has granted the said debts to John de la Linde, for his services, so that they may be levied according to law and the custom of the Exchequer and assigned to the said John.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to let him have the said debts, and the said Geoffrey to be quit of them, and to cause this to be done and enrolled.

By K., Robert Aguilun and others of the council.

Mandate to the barons of the Exchequer to let the said John have the said debts and to cause this to be done and enrolled.

Simple protection for one year for John de la Mare, parson of the church of Sherinton.

Protection with clause volumus for two years for Richard de la Rokele, going to Ireland on the king's service.

Grant for life to Ellis de Roffa, king's serjeant, marshal of the king's horses, of those 100s. yearly of rent in the town of Gloucester which sometime Gilbert de Rue and his wife held for life, to wit, 50s. arising from certain purprestures there, and 50s. from the farm of the town, to be taken under the same conditions as the said Gilbert and his wife held them.

Grant to Roger de Mortuo Mari, to whom after the conflict at Evesham the king committed the county and castle of Herford, that the king will pay the expenses which he can show to have been laid out of his own money in the keeping and in the munition of the castle.

Pardon to Richard Alafuntayne for the death of Henry Luve; as it appears by inquisition made by G. de Leuk[onor] that he killed him in self defence.

Confirmation of a grant by John de Welecumbe of divers lands and rents in Iccumbe for the maintenance of a chaplain celebrating the mass of the Blessed Virgin Mary in the chapel of Iccumbe for ever.

Confirmation of a grant which the king has inspected, made by Ralph son of Thomas Asci, chaplain, to the master and leprous brethren of the king's hospital of St. Bartholomew without Oxford, of a messuage and 2 acres of land in the parish of St. Clement without the little bridge of Oxford.