Membrane 5—cont.

Simple protection for one year for [Simon] de Reygate, parson of the church of Hesethe.

Membrane 4.

Grant to Clemence late the wife of Robert de Scales who held in chief, for a fine of 400 marks to the use of John de Britannia, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of the said Robert; saving wards, reliefs, escheats and dowers when they fall in and advowsons of churches; with the marriage of the heirs. Licence also for her to marry whomever she will of the king's allegiance.

Simple protection for one year for Simon, parson of the church of Magna Tywe.
The like for Simon, vicar of the church of Wotton.

Acknowledgment of the payment by Richard de Loges into the wardrobe on Saturday after the feast of St. Faith 51 Henry III to Nicholas de Leuenor, keeper of the wardrobe of 13l. 6s. 8d. in part payment of 120 marks whereby he made fine for having again certain land aliened by his father.

The like of the delivery by the abbot of Préaux in Normandy, to William le Rus, canon of Hereford, 40l. whereby the abbot made fine for having the lands and rents of his abbey in the last voidance of the abbey; in part payment of the debts which the king owes to the said William.

Simple protection for one year for William le Conestable.

Whereas William Marmyun, whose lands, by occasion of trespasses which he was said to have done to the king in the disturbance had in the realm, the king conferred upon Robert Aquilon, for the ransom of the said lands made fine with Robert to be paid at certain terms contained in a certain instrument which the king has inspected, and if these terms are not kept the said Robert may resume the said lands until the fine be fully paid; and whereas Philip Marmyun, chief lord of the said William, who has constituted himself in the king's presence principal debtor of the said money with the said William, has granted to him and his heirs that, if the said lands, by reason of wardship or in any other way, shall come to their hands, the said Robert shall nevertheless have seisin of the said lands if payment of the said money fails in any of the said terms, until the money be fully paid; and whereas the said Philip and William have requested the king to compel them and if necessary their heirs to fulfil the premisses; the king, for the honour and services of the said Robert, promises to do this when necessary.

Signification to N. bishop of Worcester, of the royal assent to the election of Henry de Mundene, canon of Cirencestre, to be abbot of that place.

Simple protection for one year for the following:—
Reynold de Hadleigh.
The prior and brethren of the hermits of Gosle, of the Augustinian order.