1267.

Membrane 2—cont.

all other debts which Henry owed to Cok and also for acquitting the said manor towards all Jews of all debts which the said Henry ever owed.

Simple protection with clause, for one year, for Imbert de Muntferrant, going on an embassy of the king to the court of Rome.

Oct. 24. Grant to him that Roger le Convers and Gilbert Harang whom Westminster, in the king’s presence he put in his place shall be admitted as his attorneys.

Whereas the king heretofore granted to Master Angelo, king’s clerk, canon of Cambrey, king’s proctor in the court of Rome, a yearly fee of 40 marks until he should provide for him in an ecclesiastical benefice to the value of 80 marks of rent; he grants to him an additional 10 marks a year, so that he shall take 50 marks at the Exchequer; until he provide for him in ecclesiastical benefices to the value of 100 marks a year.

Oct. 18. Power to H. cardinal bishop of Ostia and Velletri, to contract a Westminster, loan in the king’s name to further the king’s affairs in the court of Rome; as Imbert de Muntferrant, knight of the household, will let him know on the king’s behalf. By K. the queen and the whole C.

Oct. 27. Whereas in the covenant made between the king and Llewelin son of Griffin, prince of Wales, it is contained that Llewelin shall pay 1,000 marks at Chester in the abbey of Chester within a month, and he has paid this sum to Gilbert son of Hugh, the king’s messenger; the king acquits him of the said 1,000 marks.

MEMBRANE 1. (mutilated).

Respite, at the instance of William la Zuche to William de Alta Ripa from knighthood from the time of the making of these . . . . .

Oct. 24. [Grant to] Jospin son of Deulagard, Jew of Winchester, in consideration of the losses and damages sustained for the king in the time of the disturbance had in the realm, that the king will not [make any] prorogation of terms or pardon of any debts wherein Philip de Pery, Thomas de Anne, or other his debtors are bound to him; for five years.

[The like to . . . ] son in law of Hagin, Jew of London, as to the debts wherein Nicholas Payuz, Geoffrey de Childewik, John de Windesor, William de [Cheles]hull . . . . . are bound to him.

Simple protection for one year for . . . .

Oct. 27. Confirmation of a grant made by Abraham son of Joseus, Jew of London, to Ellis de Rabayn of a yearly fee of 11l. and 6[0]s. of arrears . . . wherein . . . son of William de Waye was bound to the said Jew by a charter.