1267.

Membrane 34—cont.
Dec. 13. Mandate to the above Master Walter to let queen Eleanor have 100 marks of the said tenth.

Membrane 33.
Dec. 15. Mandate to all persons forbidding them to take or permit to be taken any horses or carts of the dean of the church of Salisbury or the archdeacon of Berks going for wine or other victuals or bringing them to Salisbury to the use of the king or others, or to impede their men in so going; until Christmas.

Safe conduct until the octaves of Hilary for Ingram Clapere, Baldwin de Jurny, William de Ekarde, Roger de Curtray and Peter de Arkes, king’s serjeants at arms, going to their own parts with their horses, armour, harness and things.

Dec. 17. Commitment, during pleasure, to William de Dun of the castle of Salisbury, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer, with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him.

Mandate to Robert de Glastonia to deliver to him the castle with the armour, stock and other things by chirograph.

Simple protection for one year for Richard le Especer of Salisbury.

Dec. 18. Because the king is informed that Adam de Cestreton, king’s clerk, has laid out 50 marks and more upon the building and repair of houses which he has for life by grant of the king and with the assent of the master of house of Holy Trinity of Converts, London, the chaplains and others, converts, brethren and sisters of the said place, as appears by letters patent under their seal which the king has inspected, within the close of the said house of Converts, which houses after his decease will remain to them; the king wills that the said houses be kept in repair at their expense, as well in roofs as in all repairs within and without.

Mandate to Master Costantine de Mildehale, archdeacon of Sutbiry to be diligent in collecting the tenth which has been appointed by the legate of the apostolic see to collect in the dioceses of Lincoln, London, Norwich, Ely and Coventry and Lichfield, as appears by the legate’s letters patent which the king transmits to him.

The like to the following bishops or guardians appointed collectors in their respective dioceses:—

The bishop of Lincoln.
The guardian of the bishopric of London.
The bishop of Norwich.
The bishop of Ely.
The bishop of Coventry and Lichfield.
The archbishop of Canterbury.
The bishop of Rochester.
The guardian of the bishopric of Chichester.
The guardian of the bishopric of Winchester.
The bishop of Exeter.
The bishop of Bath and Wells.
The bishop of Worcester.
The official of the bishop of Hereford.