Pardon, at the instance of Edward the king's son, to Philip de Wenefeld for the death of John le Reve of Crich.

Membrane 31—cont.

Bond to Nicholas de Lynys, merchant of Douai, in 60l. 14s. 4d. for 14 cloths taken from him for the king's use in the fair of Stamford in the forty-seventh year by Richard de Ewell and Hugh de Turri, buyers of the wardrobe, which money the king will pay him as soon as possible.

1267.

Dec. 14. Ratification of the restoration made to William de Monte Caniso by William de Valencia the king's brother of his lands which the king by reason of the disturbance had in the realm, had given to his said brother, who has acknowledged before the king that the said William has ransomed the said lands from him according to the form of the award of Kenilworth.

The like for William Martell as to his lands which the king gave to Nicholas de Meulinges and William has ransomed according to the form of the said award.

Jan. 14. Confirmation of a sale made by Geoffrey de Leziniaco the king's brother, to whom the king granted the wardship of the lands and heirs of Roger de Munray who held in chief, with the marriage of the heirs, to Eustace de Ballool of the wardship of the said lands falling to Isabel and Alice daughters and heirs of the said Roger, with the marriage of the said Isabel.

Whereas John de Eyvill has now ransomed from Queen Eleanor his lands, which by reason of his trespasses the king had given to her, and his means beyond the payment of that ransom do not suffice to pay his debts to the Jews; the king grants to him that he shall not be distrained to pay such debts until he have paid his said ransom, saving to the Jews their recovery of his debts after that with mandate to sheriffs and others not to vex him contrary to this grant.

Jan. 17. Grant for three years to the abbot and convent of Westminster that they may bring firewood, corn and other victuals by land and by water to their abbey without any prise being made of the said goods; with mandate to the constable of the Tower of London and all bailiffs to permit them to bring the same.

In like manner it is written to the constable of the castle of Wyndesore and all bailiffs.

Jan. 17. Signification to the bishop of Lincoln of the royal assent to the election of William de Sutton, canon of the house of Oseneye, to be abbot of that place.

Exemption for life of Henry de Brok, yeoman of Queen Eleanor from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c, against his will.
