Feb. 3. Grant to Robert Waleraund, to whom the king granted the manor of Alfiscotes, which came to the king's hands as an escheat by a felony which Henry de la Mare did, and who, at the instance of the king and Edward the king's son, has surrendered the manor to the use of Thomas de Clare, to whom the king has given it by charter, that the king will provide for him in some escheat of equivalent value as soon as possible.

Whereas for arrears of the farm of the town of Dunwich and other causes the king has taken that town into his hands and committed it during pleasure to Robert de Northon, sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer; the king commands the good men of Dunwich to be intendant to the said Robert in all that pertains to their town and the preservation thereof, and in those things which the said Robert will make known to them of the things which concern the king and his peace, as the king's bailiff and keeper as above.

Commitment to the said Robert of the said town, as above.

Feb. 3. Whereas the king heretofore granted that he would provide for his brother, Richard, king of Almain in 1,000l. yearly of lands out of wards, and has done nothing according to that grant; he promises to provide for him to that amount out of the first wards that he will accept, so that the king will provide for no other person until his brother be satisfied; and so also that if, by the award of the king and Edward his son, the wardship of the lands and heirs of Roger de Mumbray who held in chief, which the king's brother has by grant of the king, and which he has let to farm for 400 marks a year, ought to be allowed to him in part satisfaction of the said 1,000l., it shall be so allowed, and if not, then the king will satisfy him of the whole 1,000l. yearly of land.

Request to the legate to pay to Richard, king of Almain, as soon as possible, out of the tenth granted to the king 2,000 marks wherein the king is bound to him.

Simple protection for one year for the prior of Wedon Pinkeny.

Signification to the king of France of the appointment of Simon Pas[lave] and Raymond de Castronovo as the king's proctors in the matter between the king and his people of Gascony, and Th[ibaut] king of Navarre, and his, before the king of France in his court on this instant first Sunday in Lent (diem Brandonum), touching certain interceptions (interpressuris) of the truce entered into, done on account of contentions which have arisen between them in Gascony.

Because the men of Clive have granted to the king 60s. a year at the Exchequer for the increment of the farm of their town; the king grants that they shall have the toll to be taken to the king's use in the fairs and markets of that town, as such toll is taken elsewhere in the realm.

Grant for life to Simon de Brageham chaplain, of the free chapel of the hermitage of la Cherring, void by the death of Richard de la March, chaplain, last ministrant therein.
