1268.

Membrane 29—cont.

Feb. 4. Simple protection for one year for Adam le Large of Sandwich.

Westminster.

Because it appears by faithful testimony of knights and others who were adherents of the king at the time of the disturbance had in the realm, and by their oath that Giles de Gousle in no way forfeited (foris fecit) against the king at the time of the said disturbance, but adhered faithfully to him; he grants to the said Giles that he shall not be molested in any way by reason of any sinister suspicion had of him then or hereafter.

Grant to the men of Clyve in the same words as above.

Grant to the mayor, bailiffs and other citizens and the good men of Lincoln that after the expiration of their present term of murage, they may continue to take it for three years from Ash Wednesday 52 Henry III.

Simple protection for one year for the abbot of Clervaux.

Admission, at the instance of Simon Passelewe, king’s clerk, of Richard de Munsted to the king’s peace and grace, and remission to him of the king’s rancour and indignation by reason of the disturbance had in the realm, and pardon to him of his trespasses at those times, on condition of his future good behaviour.

Protection with clause volumus for two years from Easter for John de Verdun.

Simple protection for one year for John son of Stephen de Northwod.

Membrane 28.

Whereas the king is informed that Adam le Despenser has made fine with Roger de Leyburn by 500l., for the ransom of his lands which the king gave to the said Roger by occasion of the disturbance had in the realm; he has granted to the said Adam, in aid of his ransom, that he may let to farm his lands in his manor of Barwe to the value of 25l. a year for a certain term, so that if he die within the term the lessee may retain the lands until the end of such term without hindrance by the king or his.

Protection and safe conduct until Michaelmas for Thomas de Colecestre, chaplain, to whose keeping the king has committed certain business; and for his household, goods and harness.

Feb. 8. Whereas the king lately granted to Edmund his son the honour of Lancaster, with wards, reliefs, escheats and all other appurtenances, to hold to him and the heirs of his body lawfully begotten; he commands the tenants of the honour to be intendant to him.

Commitment during pleasure to Giles de Gousle, sheriff of York, of the castle of York, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer; with mandate to the tenants to be intendant to him as constable of the castle.

Mandate to William le Latimer to deliver the castle to him with the armour, victuals and other things.