Simple protection for one year for Master Hugh de Staunford.

Because it appears by inquisition made by Ebulo de Montibus, constable of the castle of Winesore, that the king can give to whom he will a purpuresture within the forest of Winesore, called Ocholt, extended at 40s. a year, which Godfrey de Lifton, sometime keeper of the king's manors of Cokham and Braye, brought into cultivation; the king grants the same to Richard le Noreys, the queen's cook, and his heirs, so that they render 40s. a year to the keepers of the said manors for all service and custom.

Whereas the king is bound to R. archbishop of Tarentaise, in 600l. of arrears of his fee of 100 marks yearly at the Exchequer, which the king wishes to be paid to him as soon as payment has been made of the 1,000l. due to the pope and 1,000l. for the expenses of the household, and 2,000 marks due to R. king of Almain, the king's brother; and the king has requested the legate to let him have this sum out of the tenth granted to the king by the apostolic see; the king commands W. archbishop of York, S. archdeacon of Canterbury, and R. archdeacon of Cliveland, distributors of the said tenth, to deliver to the said archbishop the said 600l. from the said tenth, in any dioceses save the archbishopric of Canterbury and the province of York, in the form to be prescribed by the legate.

Requisition and request to the legate, after making provision for the above reserved payments, to make provision for the payment of the said archbishop accordingly.

Feb. 10. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Bertram de Bovis Westminster, Villa, going beyond seas on the king's affairs.

Grant to John Stormy, for a fine of 100 marks made with the king to the use of John de Britannia, of the wardship of the lands and heirs of John de Wik', who held in chief, with the marriage of the heirs.

Acknowledgment of the payment in the wardrobe by the burgesses of Coventre to Nicholas de Leuekenor, keeper of that wardrobe, at Westminster by the hands of Peter Barum and Roger le Chaumberlen on Saturday the morrow of St. Scholastica, 52 Henry III, of 10l. whereby they make fine for having confirmation of a charter.

Grant to Master Henry Wade, king's cook and serjeant, and his heirs, of a place in Portesmuth late of William son of Ellis le Fevre of Empneswurth, as it appears by inquisition made by Master William de Clifford, king's clerk, late escheator on this side Trent, that it is the king's escheat by a felony which William did for which he abjured the realm.

Pardon, at the instance of Walter de Beche, king's yeoman, to William de Burgate for the death of Lucy de Napecroft late the wife of William Peytevin and of any consequent outlawry.

Pardon, at the instance of brother Stephen de Fulburn, precentor of the house of the hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England at Clerkinwell, of Robert de Cantebrig, monk of the church of St. Mary, York, for the death of Walter de Discford.
