1268.

Membrane 26—cont.

Mandate to the archbishop of York and his fellows, distributors of the said tenth to cause it to be paid out of the said tenth.
Vacated because surrendered and cancelled and otherwise in the roll of the following year.

Feb 29.

Remission to Philip Basset of all manner of ransom for the lands of Ralph Jocclin and Henry de Godemaneston in Stanes and Stanewell, which Stephen de Chelmereford and Roger le Marescall held for a term now past, which ransom belonged to the king by occasion of the trespasses which the said Ralph, Stephen and Henry were said to have committed against the king in the time of the disturbance had in the realm. The said lands are in the hand of the said Philip by commitment of the said Ralph and Henry and the king acquits them all three of the said ransom.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger de Mortuo Mari, to John son of Walter de Lyngceyne for the death of John de Showedon, whereof he is indicted, and of any consequent outlawry.

Acknowledgment that the abbot of Derleye by the king's order delivered in the wardrobe to Nicholas de Leucenor, keeper of the wardrobe, at Westminster on Tuesday after St. Matthias the Apostle, 52 Henry III, by the hand of brother William de Wotton 100s, whereby he made fine for the confirmation of a charter.

Whereas Edward the king's son holds the land of Ireland of the king's gift as freely as though the king held it in his own hand, whereby Eleanor his consort ought to have her gold as well of fines as of voluntary offerings (sponte oblatis) in the land of Ireland, as Eleanor queen of England, the king's consort, has her gold of like fines in the realm of England, the king commands the treasurer of Ireland to let her have her gold of fines and voluntary offerings and also of all other said fines.

Protection with clause volumus for John de Balliol, gone to the parts of Galeweye for the king's business and his own and will stay there until next Martinmas by the king's order; until the said feast.

March 3.

Pardon to Robert de Behaghendonn, smith, for the death of Westminster. Eustace de Chetinden; as it appears by inquisition made by Nicholas de Haudlo that he killed him in self defence.

Simple protection without the clause, for one year, for John de Radleye.

Membrane 25.

March 3.

Licence for Robert de Veer, earl of Oxford, to let to farm and pledge the lands which he holds in chief, to the amount of 300l. a year, for five years, to ransom according to the form of the award of Kenilworth his lands which, by occasion of trespasses which he was said to have committed at the time of the disturbance had in the realm, the