king gave away: on condition that if he die before that term, the lessees shall continue to hold them for the term according to the covenant made.

Vacated because the writ was surrendered.

Simple protection without clause, for one year, for Robert Gosseford of Gernemuth.

The like, until Michaelmas, for Richard de Turvill.

Acknowledgment that the prior and convent of Rochester delivered in the wardrobe to Nicholas de Lucekenor, then keeper of that wardrobe, at Westminster by the hand of Henry de Roffa, on Tuesday after St. Matthias the Apostle, 52 Henry III, 20L whereby they made fine for having acquittance of the tenth of all their ecclesiastical benefices and temporalities for the three years for which the pope granted such tenth to the king.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Whereas, at the instance of the pope, the king has released to the preceptor and brethren of the hospital of the Holy Spirit in Saxia the whole of the above tenth for three years belonging to the king from the church of Writtle which they hold appropriated for the maintenance of the poor and infirm; mandate to O. cardinal deacon of St. Adrian's, the legate, W. archbishop of York, and S. archdeacon of Canterbury, and R. archdeacon of Clyveland, dispensers of the said tenth and to the collectors thereof in the bishopric of London, requesting them to exact nothing from them on this account.

Remission, at the instance of Philip Basset, to William le Botiller, Adam de Bory, John de Kuyas, Alan de Winteshull, knights, and Henry de Tilidesle, Richard de Brandeschawe, Richard de Hyndeke, William de Bold, Alan de Ruston, Jordan de Hilton, Adam de Houcton, Richard de Halhale, Hugh de Penket and William de Aderton and the members of the household of William le Botiller, of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards them by occasion of the trespasses which they were said to have committed against the king at the time of the disturbance had in the realm; and pardon of the said trespasses.

Also, whereas Hamo le Estraunge has quit-claimed to the said William the lands which by occasion of the said trespasses the king had given to David son of Griffin and David with the king's licence had given to Hamo, the king ratifies the said quit-claim, and grants that neither he nor his heirs shall be molested by reason thereof.
The king also wills that William and the others be quit of the said trespasses, on condition of their good behaviour.

Whereas John de Bennet, brother and heir of Alexander de Bennet, killed in the conflict of Lewes against the king, granted to Philip Basset certain lands of his in Hathfeud Peverel, the ransom
