Mandate to the collectors of the tenth granted to the king by the apostolic see, in the bishopric of Winchester, which the king has deputed for the expenses of the household to be delivered in the wardrobe, to deliver the money which they have received or can obtain to Ralph le Botiller, king's clerk, the bearer, without delay, according to the tenour of letters of the legate, which he will show to them; and not to omit to do this as they love the king and will avoid his indignation.

The like to the collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Coventry and Lichfield.

Simple protection without clause for two years for the abbot of Oseney.

March 8. Pardon to Hamo Lestrange and all those of his household and fellowship of their trespasses which they are said to have committed by occasion of the non-observance of the provisions or statutes of Oxford whereby disturbance was lately had in the realm, and of all action against them by reason of such trespasses to this day; and remission to them of the king's rancour and hatred conceived towards them by occasion of the same. And the king will make separately a letter patent of this to each of the said household and company whenever the said Hamo by his letters patent shall require it and thinks fit to testify that such were of his household and fellowship at the said time.

Whereas the king is informed that certain persons, claiming to be heirs of Godfrey de Craucumbe, propose to disquiet the prioress and nuns of Stodleye touching the manor of Craucumbe which they possess by gift of the said Godfrey; the king wishes all persons to know that he well remembers that the said Godfrey in his liege power conferred upon them the said manor, except a messuage and half a virgate of land in the said manor, and that the said Godfrey, at the time of the said collation, was in such state that his gift ought to be firm and stable, and prayed the king when he conferred the residue of his land upon the king to maintain the said prioress and nuns in seisin of the said manor.

Pardon to William de Cullum for the death of Roger son of Thomas de Kayton; as it appears by inquisition made by Richard de Middelton, that he killed him in self defence.

Pardon, at the instance of Edmund the king's son, to Thomas Lovel, for the death of Benedict son of Alice 'othe More.'

Simple protection without clause for one year for Philip Godchep.

Mandate to Master Walter Scamel, king's clerk, archdeacon of Berks, appointed to audit the account of the tenth received or to be received in divers bishoprics and to collect the same, to pay to John de Cultura 70 marks of arrears of his yearly fee of 20 marks at the Exchequer.
