Confirmation of a grant by Ralph le Sauvage to the chapel of St. Nicholas and St. Edmund the Confessor, Chishull, and the chaplain celebrating divine service there, of 30 acres of land and wood and 3 virgates of land in Chishull.

Exemption for life of Simon de Furneys from being put on assizes, juries or recognitions, and from being made sheriff &c., against his will.

Whereas the king, by charter, heretofore granted to Oliver de Punchardun a moiety of the manor of Fakcumbe to hold to him and his heirs for ever; saving to the king the advowson of the church of the same town; he has granted to Oliver de Punchardun, son and heir of the aforesaid Oliver, and his heirs, for his service to the king and his son Edward, the advowson of the said church.

March 16. Mandate to Master Constantino de Mildenhale, appointed to [audit] Westminster. the account of the tenth received and to be received in divers bishoprics in England, and to collect the same, to pay to the master and brethren of the hospital of St. Antony, in the diocese of Vienne, 200 marks in lieu of arrears of 20 marks a year which they ought to have received at the Exchequer out of the king's alms for the maintenance of the poor dwelling in that hospital, and of 260 marks wherein the king was bound to them, both of which sums they have remitted to the king.

Commitment during pleasure to Matthias de Bezilles of the castle of Gloucester, so that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer.

Mandate to Reynold de Akeley to deliver it to him.

Pardon to William Cole for the death of William lo Deveneys; on testimony by Richard de Middclton and Roger de Messinden and their fellows, justicers last in eyre in the county of Somerset, that he killed him by misadventure.

Mandate to Walter de Burges and Nicholas de Rumese, guardians of the bishopric of Winchester, to pay out of the issues of the bishopric as soon as they can be levied to Baldwin de Villa 100l. of arrears of his fee of 20l. at the Exchequer.

Whereas the king is bound to Reyner de Formar and Ruter de Salvater', merchants of Florence, in 300 marks for a loan, whereof, at the mandate of the legate they have received 105l. out of the tenth of the bishopric of Bath and Wells; the king, wishing that they be paid the residue of 85l., commands the abbot and convent of Certeseye to pay them in part satisfaction thereof 100 marks wherein they are bound to the king for the tenth of their temporalities and ecclesiastical benefices for the first two years of the said tenth. Vacated because they paid the 100 marks, as appears in the roll of the fifty-third year, and surrendered the letter.

Notification that, whereas Henry II, at the instance of Maud the Westminster. Empress of Almain, his mother, the foundress and patroness of the monastery of Netro Dame du Voeu, Cherbourg (beate Marie de Voto juxta Cesaris Burgun) granted by charter to the abbot and convent