1268.

Membrane 22—cont.

Walter de London, monk of Westminster, and William de Plumpton, king's clerk, to receive all the money received by them of the said tenth, and to seal it with their seals and to deposit it in the treasury of Christchurch, Canterbury, as he has enjoined them by word of mouth. He commands them to deliver the money accordingly, and when he knows how much they have delivered he will cause it to be allowed to them.

Acknowledgment of the delivery in the wardrobe by order of the king, by R. bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, on Monday the morrow of St. Edward the King and Martyr, 52 Henry III, of 200l. in part payment of 900 marks whereby he made fine with the king for the tenth granted by the pope in his bishopric to be paid according to the extent thereof last made.

The like of the delivery on the same day by R. bishop of Salisbury, by the hand of the king's clerk Ralph le Butler, of 200l. of the tenth of his bishopric of the second year of those three years in which the pope made a grace thereof to the king.

Respite, at the instance of Robert de Tybetot, to Robert de Caston from making himself a knight; for two years.

Mandate to W. bishop of Exeter, to pay to Guy de Chaunteny 147½ marks of arrears of his yearly fee of 25 marks at the Exchequer, out of the tenth of that bishopric; notwithstanding any mandate directed to him or to be directed to him to the contrary.

Vacated because otherwise below.

Pardon, at the instance of Adam de Gesemith, to Richard Frannefer for the death of John de Mers.

March 24. Mandate to Master Walter Scamcl, treasurer of Salisbury, collector of the tenth in certain dioceses, as the king has heard for certain that he has now received of the tenth of the bishopric of Salisbury the 300 marks for which the king lately sent Ralph le Butler, king's clerk, and two of the king's sergeants to Salisbury, and wishes it to be paid to the count of Bigorre, to pay the said sum on sight hereof to the said count or his attorney bearer of these letters, and not to fail to do so on pretext of any mandate to the contrary, as he loves the king's honour and his own.

Whereas Henry son of Stephen de London leased to Walter le Waleys all his houses, rents and possessions in Westchep, London, for a term of ten years, and the same Walter leased them by indenture to Henry le Waleys, citizen of London, his brother, for seven years; the king ratifies the said lease and grants that Henry shall be quit of all debts, fees, penalties and usuries which could be exacted from him by any Jews by reason of the said houses, rents and possessions during the said seven years.

Whereas, the king, by occasion of trespasses done to him of Walter de Stivechworth, gave all his lands, except those which he had given