1268.

Membrane 21—cont.

Appointment of brother John de London and William de Plumpton, king’s clerk, to collect the tenth in the archbishopric of Canterbury and the bishopric of Rochester, as the king has enjoined on them by word of mouth.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger de Leyburn, to Henry le Glover, for the death of John Stoup under Swerde.

The like, at the like instance, to Robert son of Alice de Amotebrig for the death of Goditha daughter of Henry de Bru[am].

The like to Nicholas le Venur for the death of Segerith his wife, as it appears by inquisition made by Richard de Middelton that he killed her by misadventure.

March 27. The like to John son of Richer de Arnehale for the death of Nigel Westminster. de Hertrepol; as it appears by inquisition made by the sheriff of York that he killed him in self defence.

Because for certain causes the king wishes William de Waffre to go to Coventre to bring the body of John de Malemote, lately killed there, as to the office of coroner pertains, he commands him to go to that town to do what the office of coroner requires there; and that William may do this more securely the king sends him these letters.

Grant to Richard de Middilton, justice, of 100 marks a year at the Exchequer, so long as he be in that office.

Pardon to Roger de Clifford of all debts, accounts, reckonings and arrears wherein he is held to the king at the Exchequer of the time that he was constable of the castles of Gloucester, Merleberg and Lutgereshal, and keeper of the barton of Gloucester, and sheriff of Gloucester; and keeper of the manors of Fecham and Winhecumbe and of the tine (lyne) of ale of Gloucester; and in return for this the said Roger is bound to acquit the king towards all persons touching prises, prests and debts made by him in the king’s service; and he has remitted to the king all debts in any way due to him from the king.

Commitment, during pleasure, to Robert de Heir, bailiff of Wodestok, of the manor of Haneberewe, to that he answer for the issues at the Exchequer; and mandate to the knights, free tenants, of the manor to be intendant to him as keeper thereof.

Grant to William Bonquer, in consideration of his losses and damages in the king’s service, of 500 marks of the king’s nearest and clearest debts due to the king as William shall select.

Mandate to the collectors of the tenth granted by the pope, in the bishopric of Winchester, to pay to Master Nicholas de Curtenay, king’s clerk, 10l. which the king has granted to him for his expenses.

Exemplification of a charter dated at Westminster, of William, king of England, granting to Serlo, sometime prior of Wyteby, and