1268.

Membrane 21—cont.

consort of his first born son Edward, shall have the keeping of that hundred, during pleasure, rendering at the Exchequer yearly as much as William rendered.

Mandate to the constable of the Tower of London and of the castle of Wydesoner, and others not to molest those whom Walter de Merton, member of the household, has deputed to bring corn, firewood, hay and other necessaries by the water of Thames to London; for one year.
The like for Adam de Stratton; for one year.

Remission, at the instance of the queen of France and of Philip her son, to Arnald Everardi, citizen of Cahors (Carlucen') of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him, by occasion of trespasses which he was said to have committed at the time of the disturbance had in the realm, the king granting that he may enter the realm and trade as he did before the said disturbance.

Mandate to Master W. de Bakepuz, king's clerk, escheator of Ireland, to restore the temporalities of the bishopric of Killaloe to Master Matthew, dean of Killaloe, whose election as bishop has been confirmed by D. archbishop of Cashel.

Membrane 20.

Exemption for five years of the burgesses of Lenn from all payment of murage, in consideration of their service during the disturbance of the realm.

Remission, at the instance of the queen of France and of Philip her son, to Arnald Everardi, citizen of Cahors (Carturc') of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him by occasion of trespasses which he was said to have committed against the king in the realm; and grant that he may enter the realm and trade as he used to do before the disturbance.

Ratification of the restitution made to Henry de Hastings of all his lands in Ottele, co. Suffolk, with the advowson of the church of Assele and the service of Matthew de Charmeles for all the lands which the latter held of him in Assele, which the king gave to his brother Geoffrey de Lezcnang and the said Geoffrey and William de Valencia and Robert de Raleng, attorneys of the said Geoffrey, have restored to the said Henry.

Commitment during pleasure to Roger de Leyburn the lands and goods of John de Watton, to the use of the said John, on testimony before the king that the said John who holds in chief within the hundred of Midd' that he is non compos, whereby he dissipates and alienates his lands and goods without the king's licence and will.

Acknowledgment of the delivery in the wardrobe by the prior of Merton and Walter de Croce to Peter de Wyntonia, keeper of that