plaints and contentions between the king and his children and other faithful moved as well by Simon de Monte Forti as by S. sometime earl of Leicester, his father, and Eleanor, sometime countess of Leicester, his mother, and the rest of their sons by reason of the war lately had in the realm, or moved against them by the king, which however the king does not believe in or know of. The king promises to observe whatever the said king awards by Michaelmas; and submits to the jurisdiction of the pope so that he may coerce him by ecclesiastical censure.

By the whole C.

Grant to the prior and convent of Osolveston, for a fine of 10l. of the keeping of their house during its instant voidance through the death of William, their late abbot; saving wards, reliefs and advowsons.

Grant to W., abbot of Rameseye, because of his divers courtesies, that he may sell the corn of his manors in the county of Bedeford at London or elsewhere without impediment or any prise being made to the king's use, until St. Peter's Chains.

Safe conduct for three years for Gerard Merboud, king's merchant, coming to England and trading in wines and other merchandise; with this clause, the king wills that for that time he shall be quit of toll and the king's ancient prizes.

Acknowledgment of the delivery in the wardrobe by Richard de Loges to Peter de Wintonia, keeper of that wardrobe, on Monday in Easter week, 52 Henry III, of 6l. 13s. 4d. in part payment of 20 marks whereby he made fine for having back certain land aliened by his father.

[Pardon] at the instance of W. archbishop of York, to Thomas Ode of Witinton for the death of Richard de Grendon.

April 8. Mandate to Walter de London, monk of Westminster, and William Westminster, de Plumpton, collectors of the tenth granted to the king by the pope, in the archbishopric of Canterbury and the bishopric of Winchester, to let the abbot of Westminster have out of the first moneys arising from the tenth 200 marks for the ransom of jewels which the king pawned with certain merchants for that sum.

Confirmation of the restitution by William la Zuche to Nigel de Langeford of his lands, which the king had given to the said William by reason of Nigel's trespasses during the disturbance in the realm.

Grant to Roger de Leyburn, that his expenses in going after the conflict at Evesham to divers places on the king's business, according to the tenour of divers letters close, shall be paid to him or allowed to him in his debts to the king.

April 10. Protection with clause until Whitsunday for Robert de Insula, Westminster, going to St. Edmunds.
