in the manor of Fechain which he then believed to belong to John Aguillun, who was then in the city of London, and said to be giving aid to the king's enemies.

Grant to the bailiffs and good men of Shrewsbury of pavage, for three years from Ascension Day next, to wit, the same customs on corn brought into the town for sale, and by the same measures as the bailiffs and good men of Gloucester take.

Mandate to the bishop of St. Davids, appointed by the legate to collect the tenth in his bishopric, as appears by the legate's letters to him, to be diligent in making the collection according to the form delivered to him.

Protection, with clause, until St. Peter's Chains, for John Walerand, going to Scotland on the king's affairs.

Renewal of the pardon made 30 March, 41 Henry III, under the old seal, to Richer de Arnehale for the death of Alan de Waghne, as the said letters have been lost. [Calendar, p. 547.]

May 13. Acknowledgment of the delivery by the king's order by Master Westminster. Roger, archdeacon of Oxford (sic) and John de Exonia, canon of Exeter, collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Exeter, of 400£. to R. archbishop of Tarentaise, in part payment of the arrears of his yearly fee of 100 marks at the Exchequer.

Pardon, at the instance of R. bishop of Durham, to William le Piper for the death of John de Schaleby and of any consequent outlawry.

Safe conduct until Michaelmas for William de Prato, clerk and envoy of the count of Boulogne, coming to the realm with his household and harness.

Acknowledgment that the king is bound to the abbot and convent of Tiron in 280 marks, arrears of their fee of 20 marks a year which they take yearly at the Exchequer of the king's appointed alms; and promise to pay a moiety thereof at Easter and a moiety at Michaelmas.

Simple protection, without clause, for one year, for John Taylefer, citizen of Canterbury.

Mandate to the collectors of the tenth in the bishopric of Worcester to pay to J. cardinal deacon of SS. Cosmas and Damian, 275 marks of arrears of his yearly fee of 20 marks at the Exchequer, notwithstanding the assignment of the said tenth to the expenses of the household.

Pardon, at the instance of Roger de Leyburn, to Robert son of William son of Astin de Salton for the death of Walter son of William de Salton.