1268.
May 13. Grant to Hugh de Dive, to whom the king lately committed the castle and forest of Windsor, during pleasure, answering for the issues of the Exchequer, that he may have the said keeping with the purprestures already made and with the pannage, fallen wood, croppings and loppings (copperonibus) and with the fees and heaths belonging to the said castle and forest; saving to the king purprestures hereafter made, alienations revoked, escheats, wards and marriages of the fees of knights and free men who hold of the said castle; he rendering at the Exchequer 77L 5s. a year, so long as he have the said keeping.

Grant to him of 30L yearly out of the said farm so long as he have the said keeping.

May 14. Acknowledgment that the king is bound to the mayor and citizens of York in 760L, for that sum paid by them to merchants for cloths taken to the king’s use in the instant fair of St. Ives by Richard de Ewell and John de Sutton, buyers of the wardrobe; and promise to pay them out of the first amercements and fines made before the justices now in eyre in the county of York.

May 14. Notification to the archbishop of Rouen and the chapter of that place that the king assents to their proposal to make a perpetual lease at fee farm to the abbot and convent of Meaux of the manor of Killum, co. York; saving to the king in times of voidance of the see of Rouen, the farm or keeping due and accustomed of the said manor.

The like, at the instance of Edward the king’s son.

May 15. Acknowledgment of the delivery by the king’s order by Alice de Lacy, guardian of the land and heir of Edmund de Lacy, sometime her husband, to Henry de Lacy of 50L which she ought to have paid to the king a month after Easter, 50 Henry III, for the fine she made for the wardship of two parts of the lands late of the said Edmund.

Pardon, at the instance of John de la Lynde, to Roger de Haya and Margery his wife of the king’s suit for the death of Richard de Bikerton.

As it was testified before the king by Roger de Leyburn, justice of the forest beyond Trent, that 20 acres of land at Brambray within the forest of Englewode, which were arrented before Brian de Insula, sometime justice beyond Trent, at 10s. a year were afterwards superarrented by Geoffrey de Langele and his fellows, justices in eyre for pleas of the forest in those parts, at 10d. an acre; and because of the said arrentation the said 20 acres have lain waste; the king, at the instance of the said Roger, has granted to Thomas de Capella the said 20 acres at the king’s will, so that he render for every acre 4d. a year at the Exchequer by the hands of the sheriff of Cumberland; he has granted to him also 4½ acres of land in Birkemere within the said forest, so that he may enclose the same with a small ditch and low hedge according to the assize of the forest and bring them into cultivation, rendering 4d. an acre at the Exchequer.

Whereas the king granted to his brother R. king of the Romans, that he would pay to him 2,687½ marks wherein he is bound to him for a loan, out of the arrears of the tenth of the bishopric of Hereford.