of Rouen, has made frequent courtesies to the king of his merchandise; grant to him for life that he shall not be distrained in any place in the realm for any debt whereof he is not surety or principal debtor; and he is not to be molested contrary to this grant.

Pardon, at the instance of Richard de Monet, to Nicholas son of Robert de Walne for the death of Richard son of John de Boterwyk.

Simple protection, without clause, until Easter, for Joseph son of Alger de Walepol.

May 24. Grant to John de Stayngrive that of the debts of his ancestors at Westminster he may pay 10 marks a year until they are paid off.

Grant to John de Lo and his fellows, merchants of Ypres, to whom the king is bound in £735. 6s. 8d. as well of loans as of cloths taken from them by Richard de Ewell, buyer of the wardrobe, in the parts of Flanders, at the time when the king was at Stratford, that the said sum be levied out of the first issues of the eyre of York and the fines and amercements made before the justices in eyre there and delivered to them.

Vacated because this letter was surrendered and cancelled and the whole money contained in it paid.

Grant for long service to Richard Fige of a place between Goldestrete and Calpestrete, Winchester, containing 100 feet by 130 feet and worth 6s. a year save 21d. yearly of the king's terrage, as appears by inquisition made by the sheriff of Southampton, to hold to him and his heirs for ever; so that he render the said 21d. yearly to the bailiff of the said town for all service.

May 24. Pardon to Richard de Preston for the death of William le Boyel; Westminster, as it appears by inquisition made by Adam de Greynvill that he killed him in self defence.

Remission at the instance of Master Thomas de Wynmndham, the treasurer, to Thomas de Capes of the king's indignation and rancour of mind conceived towards him by occasion of his trespasses at the time of the disturbance had in the realm; and pardon to him of the trespasses.

Acknowledgment of the king's indebtedness to Poncius de la More, Peter de Porte, and William de Warasche, merchants of Cahors, in 1221. 13s. 4d. for 140 tuns of wine taken from them by Walter le Capeles, chamberlain of London, and John de Sumerset, the king's butler; and promise to pay the same at the Exchequer a fortnight after Michaelmas.

May 23. Pardon to Walter Lemman for the death of Henry son of Thomas de Hales; as it appears by inquisition made by Henry de Tracy, that he killed him by misadventure; and of any consequent outlawry.

Grant to John de la Lynde and John Walerand, sometime keepers of the Tower of London, that they shall receive the 77l. 8s. which by the